

Introduction

The Richest Men in the World

The Founders of Google, PayPal, Oracle, Facebook, eBay
Spending Hundreds of Millions To Live Forever

The multi-billionaires — Larry Page, Sergey Brin, Peter Thiel, Larry Ellison, Mark Zuckerberg, Pierre Omidyar — are pouring hundreds of millions into anti-aging research.

One very large hundred-million-dollar research project uncovered something startling, as follows: Massive increases in personal wealth could be the missing link to immortality. It turns out that a major component to curing aging is radically raising the personal wealth of ordinary people, which raises the desire and demand for longer and longer life. Now that explains why the richest men in the world are aggressively trying to buy immortality.

And after four decades, a hundred-million-dollar Neothink® Society research project unearthed that major component — the wealth secret that can bring about the radical raise to the ordinary person, which dramatically boosts one's desire to live forever and provides that ordinary person with the money to live carefree and forever.

And with plenty of money to sustain a much longer life!

With boatloads of money, we'll live an extra 20, 30, or even 40 years longer than expected. Maybe even live...forever, just as the multi-billionaires desire more than anything. They are spending hundreds of millions to cure aging.

And why not? People laughed when we said we were going to land a man on the moon. Then we did it. The expert engineers said that my partner and I could not cantilever a glass bridge over the edge of the Grand Canyon. Then we did it (I am the co-founder of the Grand Canyon Skywalk). You see, things just seem impossible until somebody comes along and actually does it.

I've put this wealth-for-the-ordinary-person breakthrough (which leads to the aging cure) on this website for you. I've spent four decades in a massive research and development project funded by over a hundred million dollars. Now, I am ready to show you the secrets to eternal wealth and youth. This is the breakthrough prominent billionaires have been searching for, the founders of Google, Facebook, eBay, PayPal, Oracle:

Unearthing the Wealth-Secret Breakthrough From This Massive Research Project

- The secret formula to rapidly making ordinary people wealthy and ultimately ending aging.
- Why growing poor and old and dying is now a CHOICE.
- The two obstacles blocking your ability to stay young and wealthy.
- The real reason people don't want to live beyond their life expectancy (i.e., lack of money) blocking their desire and ability to stay young.
- The only true way to avoid falling into poverty in order to sustain the desire to live.
- The 'wealth secret' that puts big money in your lap to enable you to really enjoy life & never run out of money & never want to leave your wealthy life just like today's billionaires! Wealth puts one on the path to long life.
- The secret formula that attracts love and romance like a magnet and keeps you sexually vibrant forever. Romance puts one on the path to long life.

Do you still think eternal wealth and youth are impossible? But what if they're not. What if everything I say is true and you don't ever have to grow poor and old? It'd be the most amazing, profound, fantastic thing that could ever happen to you, wouldn't it?

Wealth and Immortality Go Hand In Hand

This breakthrough 2800-page reveal, four decades and over a hundred-million-dollars in the making, unfolds and solves the age-old mystery-marriage of wealth and non-aging. You will know the secret formula to curing aging in this first section of 50 pages alone! Then onto the 2800 pages of the world's most highly-guarded wealth secrets of all time!

You'll rapidly be on the path that cures financial depression and romantic dissatisfaction...lifting you off the path of drab stagnation/death and placing you on the path of pure exhilaration/life! These ancillary cures are all needed to desire and design a greatly lengthened wealthy and romantic life! Now, with this breakthrough website, it can happen to you!

The Rich Life — The Richest Billionaires Want Eternal Life

Remember...billionaires today aggressively pursue immortality. They are rich and therefore want to live forever. Among them are the Google co-founders Larry Page and Sergey Brin, PayPal co-founder Peter Thiel, Oracle founder Larry Ellison, Facebook founder Mark Zuckerberg, eBay founder Pierre Omidyar to name just a few of the billionaires who declared war on aging and death. They spend hundreds of millions hoping to live forever. Why does this common thread run through so many billionaires? Because having a lot of money and success and the creativity that goes with it motivates their human desire for life — for much more of it! Wouldn't you want their wealth and creativity? And wouldn't you want to live much, much longer with their billions and their exhilarating creativity? The fact that the uber-rich love life underscores the Neothink® Society's conclusive research that curing stagnation and igniting creativity and wealth are integral components to curing aging. Getting wealthy is a MUST...like the billionaires. And a driving component of this Neothink® Breakthrough is to make you rich!

Armed with this power, the ordinary person becomes extraordinary. Lives change a full 180 degrees overnight. You could gain incredible wealth, intense romance, and tidal waves of good fortune. Imagine for a moment your own personal transformation into an extraordinary, wealthy person of power and influence!

Think About It: Become Rich and Never Ever Grow Old!

This breakthrough is life-changing in the deepest, most profound way. We can gain wealth and regain our youth, once again be strong, powerful, and vibrant. And wealthy. Decades pass and we now grow old, financially strapped and die. But we now can change all that through this Neothink® Breakthrough.

We never again need be pushed to the sidelines of life as a mere spectator or pushed aside by the slings of misfortune. Laugh, play, make love over and over again like a teenager, and run circles around people half your age. People much younger will be attracted to you and your money! You will be a player again.

Embrace life again, grasp it with energy and delight. I am not just talking about being young at heart, but young in body and mind, too. For years and years to come, living it up with the joy and freedom of wealth...like today's billionaires!

To stay eternally young and wealthy has been the dream of you and me and everyone who has ever lived since the dawn of mankind. But it is an empty dream and somewhat meaningless without the secret to making major money. Billionaires own that secret to making major money and are now pouring hundreds of millions into anti-aging research. They never want to give it up! And why should they? They have it all!

As science inches closer and closer to new anti-aging discoveries, the intriguing non-aging possibility has always been in the back of our minds, hasn't it? And for those making MAJOR MONEY, the possibility is in the forefront of their minds...Peter Theil, Larry Ellison, Sergey Brin, Larry Page, Mark Zuckerberg to name a few.

After all, getting tired and wrinkly, becoming feeble and sick and poor — who wants that? Self-preservation is our #1 instinct. Above all, we are hard-wired to survive, to prosper and cling to life and extend it as long as possible!

That's exactly what the ultra-rich billionaires crave: the gift of time (filled with joy and bountiful wealth). Imagine...do anything you want, anytime you want. Remember, like the richest billionaires, you need wealth to make this really work, and making you wealthy is a driving component of this Neothink® breakthrough. The wealth-secret breakthrough was 40 years in the making with research costs of over a hundred million dollars. (You can easily read the pages that boost your wealth first in the 2800-page deep dive. Most new members do.)

If you've ever felt there's just not enough money, this breakthrough puts you on the path to all the money you could ever want. I'm talking about having money for comfortably extending our lives to 120, 150 and more (doubling, tripling, ten-folding our wealth). And to do so with youthful energy and vigor...and youthful sex, too!

This is priceless information that not only can eradicate poverty and aging, but put you on a path towards total health and financial freedom the likes of which you can't even fathom at this point in your life. You want to take a trip around the world, all first class? Continue on...onto the money-making Neothink® breakthrough.

Thanks largely to these multi-billionaire Tech Giants, science has made incredible strides over the past few decades in the field of anti-aging. But unfortunately, we only hear about the hucksters in the cosmetic industry who peddle worthless creams and lotions for insanely big bucks.

Real anti-aging is serious science with massive funding and dedicated scientists who are trying to crack the code to give us more life. The richest men in the world spend large fortunes on anti-aging science.

I'm proud to say our decades-long research project — over a hundred-million-dollar research project — has found the key.

Imagine when you're ageless and wealthy, you'll never again be bound by society's strict rules. No longer suffer from the fear and anxiety that grips you with each advancing year.

Imagine the years melt away from your body and face as you regain the look of a person who's young, strong, and sexually vibrant as you were in your 20s. Imagine when younger people are attracted to you again, start looking at you again, start "checking you out" again. Then imagine when young attractive people start striking up conversations with you again! Imagine being back in the game again. And this time, you can be a wealthy player. (A lot of romantic power comes with a fat wallet!)

Take a look at more gems from this massive research project..

- The 3-step secret formula that makes you grow younger.
- The 4 'hidden' benefits of never growing old that you never thought of (but will give you goose bumps!).

- A new, totally outside-the-box, foolproof money-making system for the longer life! (Needed to live twice as long!)
- What financial freedom really is and what it means for your long and prosperous future...for your longer, exciting life!
- The new big-picture, big-life way of thinking helps you easily outsmart and outcompete your narrow-minded peers at anything: money, promotions, and romance.
- Banish boredom, stagnation, and failure from your life — in seconds...forever. Get set for your long and exhilarating, creation-driven, success-filled future. Permanently reverse the depressing, declining trends of aging!

Here's the best part. There's nothing complicated about the breakthrough. No regimen to follow. The real beauty is it's so simple.

You know what they say: When something makes perfect sense, even a child can understand it.

You'll cure financial depression and romantic dissatisfaction including sexual stagnation. You have to in order to live far beyond your life expectancy! It's all connected...it's like Einstein's Unified Field Theory here on Earth. It's all connected.

You see, everything is related. When you cure aging, you'll naturally need to be on the path that delivers everything you could ever want — fantastic wealth, happiness, intense romance, and fulfilling relationships. The breakthrough fixes everything lacking in your life — money, romance, happiness — for these are absolutely needed to live on and on and on.

When this Neothink® Society research project hit on the wealth breakthrough, that psychologically changed everything. The ideas and process needed to achieve our mankind-shifting goal were tested again and again, until there was no doubt in any of our minds.

We finally broke through and achieved the impossible — the complete formula needed for much longer life along with ALL the necessary ingredients of wealth, happiness, romance, and youth.

The life worth living for eternity.

Scientists have been putting the brakes on aging for years. We're expected to live longer than our parents. Our kids will live longer than us.

Just keeping up with the news these days shows us that we're on the brink of medical advances that were unthinkable just a few short years ago, largely thanks to the billionaires — especially the tech giants — pouring hundreds of millions of dollars into anti-aging research.

We have 'nano-robotics,' tiny machines that travel inside your body that will soon perform emergency surgery without major damage to your body and for a fraction of the cost.

We now hold the cures for diseases once considered 'unconquerable.' Malaria, polio, measles, smallpox are now all 'curable'. As a result, we are all living better and living longer. And we have evolving cryopreservation companies such as ALCOR that preserves bodies in liquid nitrogen with the hopes to bring them back when the technology can cure most diseases including aging. Several of the multi-billionaires are signed up with ALCOR.

Today, anti-aging is leaps and bounds beyond face creams. It's real science.

But there has never been even a conception of an enduring journey like this website that puts you on the path to profound wealth and prolonged physical youth and romantic vigor. You get it all in this breakthrough website.

See how the richest billionaires will get immortality. Their minds are ready for it. They have made the mental shift (because they have boatloads of money!) To get ready for it, we too have to change the way we think, and it all begins with making boatloads of money! It's nothing more complicated.

We don't have to learn difficult new concepts. We have to make money — lots of it, just as the seven treatments in this breakthrough shows you.

The great thing is, as soon as you see the treatments, you'll know in your gut that this wealth-secret breakthrough is the answer!

Consider perhaps the most famous spot in advertising history, the debut of Apple Computers.

The commercial was called 1984, after George Orwell's novel. A young woman runs with a javelin toward a giant TV screen where a man talks about conformity. She fires it and the screen explodes.

The commercial was about destroying the status quo. In Apple's case, it was a direct hit at the monopoly of IBM. As a result of this one commercial, the world of computers was never the same again.

The ad was followed up with the campaign Think Different. It featured Muhammad Ali, Pablo Picasso, Albert Einstein, and a who's who of people who changed the world because they dared to 'Think Different.'

These ads echoed my personal realizations that to achieve the impossible, you had to think different. I had already named my outside-the-box thinking "Neothink".

Let me give you a real-life example of "think different" or Neothink®.

Our idea (the late David Jin and myself) was to build a glass bridge over the edge of the Grand Canyon 4000 feet up! It had never been thought of before, much less attempted. Before I go on, let me state for the record that this was David's idea initially and "his baby", which I believed in and "adopted" as my own.

The so-called 'experts' laughed at the idea, saying it could never be done. Like I said before, it's impossible until someone actually does it.

David and I used Neothink® and just like that, we had the solutions in our minds that nobody had ever thought of before. In 2007, we opened the Grand Canyon Skywalk to thousands of amazed skywalkers. And by the way, wealth follows creativity. In other words, wealth follows Neothink®.

The Impossible Is Now Possible...

This research project used the same Neothink® technique to develop the never-before-thought-of cure for aging and along with it, the one true, proven concept that will wipe out personal poverty. These things are connected and have to be cured in order to sustain substantially longer life. ...As Einstein knew, it's all connected so our powerful financial cure could not happen before the aging cure. They had to happen together.

This breakthrough way of thinking and this connectivity led us to these extraordinary insights:

- The reason why nearly every job stops our ability to create which blocks out wealth and guarantees stagnation and depression...not viable when doubling life expectancy. Instead our jobs must become our engines of creation and wealth and happiness.
- Our suppressed, inborn ability to create is the rapid path to wealth, exhilaration and happiness...necessary when doubling life expectancy.
- Ground-breaking "open ended" jobs of creation lead to wealth generation and an army of self-leaders who'll lift the world to great prosperity.

- How to harness and ride wealth to kick off the cure to aging.

The breakthrough on this website is the first attempt to ‘go public’ with the results of the four-decade, hundred-million-dollar breakthrough of “great wealth cures aging.” This could possibly be the greatest breakthrough in the history of mankind. This knowledge will benefit you and eventually everyone on the planet with a major wealth leap interlocked with a major life leap.

Here Are Some of this Website’s Secrets That Will Help You Break Through:

- This cure to aging actually unlocks huge money-making opportunities for you...you will be amazed.
- Why living far longer than the norm is always portrayed as a CURSE and how to reverse that deep in your thinking and feelings. Psychosomatic power brings you immediate and dramatic reversal of the destruction of aging, from heightening sexual energy to resurrecting attractive good looks.
- Embrace the only possession you have in the known universe that can *create...*and learn how to use it for generating wealth and a stimulating life of untold happiness and longevity, just like the exhilarated Tech Giants!
- The ONE simple way to make your job — any job — a fertile place for creation and therefore a place for conceiving great wealth and happiness. You will be amazed.
- “Think different” or Neothink® is the only thing in the known universe that enables your mind to keep growing, creating, generating wealth, love, happiness and youthful stimulation.

When our research project began nearly forty years ago, I often wondered why the idea of curing the disease of aging didn't dominate newspapers, businesses, research-and-development programs, and later, why it didn't dominate the Internet.

The concept just seemed a little bit too far-fetched. But not to Mark Zuckerberg, Larry Page, Sergey Brin, Peter Thiel, Larry Ellison, Pierre Omidyar and many other billionaires! The rich and creative want more life, plain and simple. But everyone else on the planet is mentally conditioned to get old and die, and people are just resigned to that fate. Live 78 or so years, on average, and then die. What can you do?

This breakthrough tells you what you can do — starting with getting wealthy!

You can't change the inevitable, right? WRONG! And people with this breakthrough know this.

Would you like to live an extra 60, 70, or 80 years? And with lots of money and youthful vigor!

The average life span at the start of the 1900s, just a little over a hundred years ago, was just 49 years of age. Now, a baby born today can expect to live to 80 or 85, with a much, much greater standard of living.

With our breakthrough, tack on another 50 or 60 years, with a much, much greater standard of living. And that's a conservative estimate.

The time has to be just right for the world to be receptive to this leap.

Most importantly, I learned you'd better have all your ducks in a row when you're shaking up the establishment. If you don't prove your case, and I mean down to every dotted 'i' and crossed 't,' they'll burn you down and humiliate you. Your reputation will be in tatters, and nobody will listen to a thing you say ever again. We are stepping on some really big toes by curing aging.

The actual process of curing aging is something that's never been conceptualized before. It begins far from the laboratories and is far too complex for today's research funding.

Our research discovered two things considered essential: absolute freedom (i.e., the elimination of political interference) and an overwhelming marketplace demand (i.e., wealthy people too happy to die such as the billionaire Tech Giants). Indeed, as I said, the cures that bring us youth, wealth, freedom are all connected. You need to make lots of money like the billionaires to desire a longer life, and this breakthrough provides that to you.

Being young and wealthy changes you in ways you can't fully understand or appreciate right now. Life becomes something very different...something much more beautiful...something you never want to end.

Go on this mind-bending journey of no return. Everything is provided for you — the new ideas and completely new money-making techniques.

Create, Get Rich, Live, Love — Or Stagnate and Die

As I said before, the human mind holds the key. It's the only thing on earth that can CREATE. Without creation, the human mind falls far below its human potential and slowly stagnates and dies. There are only two paths for us: creation or stagnation.

When your mind creates and lives in beautiful harmony with its nature it continually grows, expands, and experiences the life it was meant to live. And it gets wealthy. Creativity begets wealth.

You then value life on a much deeper level and don't want it ever to slow down. When you create, you demand longevity. Also, when you create, you inevitably become wealthy.

You NEVER Have To Be 'Finished' With Life

When this breakthrough shows you how to tap into the rare creation-driven mind, you'll know immediately because of increasing wealth and stimulation...and because it's psychologically incapable of being 'finished' with life.

Steve Jobs is a prime example of this principle at work. He was creating (and getting richer) right up to the end. Making billions. He was simply incapable of fully grasping his own end — until perhaps the very last final moment. And when the end did come, it packed an overwhelming wallop that counters everything that he'd ever known: now his creative mind must STOP and FINISH. For the first time in its existence, his creative mind was literally forced to shut down.

In almost disbelief that it was really all over, perhaps that's what Jobs was facing when he uttered his last words: "OH WOW. OH WOW. OH WOW..."

An Open-Ended "Immortal Mind"

We've spent four decades on how to lift that stagnating "mortal" mind into the open-ended "immortal" mind. What we've found is this mind is never finished with life...with its growing creations. That's why the creative and rich Tech Giants meet regularly on how to cure aging and end death. You would too if you controlled the creativity and the billions of those Tech Giants.

The creation-driven mind knows great happiness, great wealth, and will continue to thrive, forever.

I realize that this is heavy stuff. But once you lay eyes on the seven treatments from this hundred-million-dollar research project, then you'll immediately understand how the breakthrough truly ends aging as we know it, eradicates poverty and gins up personal wealth and romance.

In doing so, you'll save your life...and your loved ones (not to mention enjoy a wealthy, carefree life!)

This is perhaps the greatest idea of all time: we can vastly improve and save our own lives!

There is nothing more important than going to the seven treatments from this massive multi-decade research project and saving and enhancing your life. And along the way personally discover wealth and supercharged romance. It can make you very wealthy and live a very long time.

Every interconnected feature of this massive research project such as the cure to aging breakthrough, the billionaires' wealth breakthrough, the romance breakthrough...all those interconnected secrets are compartmentalized. So you learn those many breakthroughs one by one by reading just a few pages at a time. These are by far the most powerful blocks of pages that you will ever lay eyes on.

About the Author and His Goal

Mark Hamilton History

Mark wanted to tell everyone, but they would not listen. Their eyes would glaze over, for they were ensconced in what they had been taught by the powers that be. The “experts” would ridicule Mark’s ideas. The authorities would punish Mark’s ideas. His ideas were too different. In fact, his ideas threatened the existing power structures. He soon learned there could be no direct communication of what he knew. He needed to silently clear a new path.

So, his work began in secret. No one beyond his family would know for quite some time about his secret knowledge. Mark worked long days, years, decades getting what he knew onto paper and then into action. As years became decades, he captured thousands of pages of Neothink® in his highly-guarded manuscripts. Finally, after many years, he decided it was time to form a protected, secret society of his select few, yet very passionate readers.

And those passionate readers grew to a couple million, reading his large Neothink® Manuscripts with entirely new ways of looking at the world. With the rise of the Internet, Mark’s secret society took a lot of abuse from establishment-ensconced, misinformed people who heard out-of-context bits and pieces of Mark’s hidden ideas when some of his ideas began to leak. Of course, the establishment’s “experts” tried to discredit Mark Hamilton, and the authorities tried to shut him down.

After thirty-three long years, Mark decided to no longer keep his ideas hidden. Maturing from an ambitious young man into a determined middle-aged man, Mark feels the time has come to release his ideas to the world. And his passionate, secret-society readers agree. The country is scattered with Mark Hamilton’s Neothink® Clubhouses. And they are ready, willing, and waiting with open arms, hearts, and minds to teach you Mark’s life-changing Neothink® ideas and techniques.

About the Author

And he gives you his life's work — over thirty years of long days writing (and sleepless nights fighting establishment authorities). Mark wants you to finally benefit from his deepest, secret knowledge. He has envisioned this secret knowledge reaching you and eventually the masses for a long, long time, ever since he was a young man and realized his secret establishment-shattering knowledge would enormously benefit everyone alive.

Since he was a young man, Mark Hamilton has pursued the goal of improving life for everyone...from his breakthroughs that turn your work from a burden to a joy, to his breakthroughs that turn our country's leadership from suppression to a launching pad for universal wealth, health and peace. Mark Hamilton's Neothink® breakthroughs bring unprecedented prosperity and wonderful emotions to the people. And his greatest breakthrough ever made is on the pages to follow.

Uncovering The Secret Formula

Cure To Aging

Cure To Aging

Thirty-Three-Year
Research & Development Project
Uncovers THE
Definitive Cure to Aging

After thirty-three years in a privately-funded, highly-guarded research and development project, I am now releasing the definitive treatment to curing aging.

I have worked mostly in secret for over thirty-three years to develop this treatment that has never been fathomed before. With the release of this highly-guarded information, finally the controversy over me and the secret society will end. All questions will be answered, relieved, and put to rest as I tell EVERYTHING.

My definitive treatment to curing aging transcends everything on the market. In fact, after being exposed to my breakthrough, one realizes most anti-aging approaches fall terribly short in light of my treatment. I have for the first time broken through to the definitive treatment to curing aging.

During my thirty-three-year research and development project carried out in secret, I uncovered some mankind-shifting breakthroughs. When you embark on this journey to curing aging, you will also cure financial depression, emotional stagnation, romantic dissatisfaction, political subjugation. There has never been even a conception of a journey like this that delivers financial success, emotional exhilaration, romantic elevation, political freedom along a new path toward prolonged physical youth, vigor and beauty.

The cure to aging, created in secret for over thirty years, takes you through this journey to wealth, romance, happiness and youth. The release of this cure to aging is so brand-new that testimonials do not yet exist. However, you may read thousands of testimonials about my other works by googling “Mark Hamilton Neothink”. You will discover that I am the co-founder of the award-winning engineering marvel Grand Canyon Skywalk – the famous horseshoe shaped glass bridge cantilevered over the edge of the Grand Canyon. I am the founder of a growing new political party: the Twelve Visions Party. I am the author of over a dozen life-changing books, and I am the founder of a growing phenomenon: the Neothink[®] Society and its Neothink[®] Clubhouses.

Thirty years ago I discovered a mental puzzle-building technique to consistently think outside of the box and named my discovery Neothink[®]. We used Neothink[®] while designing the never-before-fathomed Grand Canyon Skywalk. I used Neothink[®] while developing THE never-before-fathomed definitive treatment to curing aging. I used Neothink[®] to create the never-before-fathomed fast-track to a wealthy creation-driven life. I used Neothink[®] to invent the never-before-fathomed political system that will eradicate poverty and terrorism.

There has been a mystery surrounding me and my Neothink[®] for over three decades. I created my highly-guarded Neothink[®] Manuscripts in private within an exclusive society for over thirty years, during which I revealed my secrets only to inside members of that exclusive society.

In fact, outsiders and misinformed invitees who heard of me and my works but never saw my works would, at times, lash out at me or my society with incomplete misinformation...out-of-context, misguided accusations or controversies. Being an inside and sworn member to an exclusive secret society, neither I nor my fellow members could defend my works or reputation. So for many years, misguided and unjust accusations piled up on me and my society throughout the rumor-mill Internet. But I kept my Neothink[®] breakthroughs guarded in a secret society to keep my research pure and untouched by the “experts” whom I felt were stuck...and free from establishment authorities whom I did not trust.

Then, in 2007, after nearly thirty years inside the secret society, I began transitioning myself and my highly-guarded works from a fiercely private and highly secretive society toward a semi-public society with my founding of the Society of Secrets[®]. The Society of Secrets[®] began to move me (and my works) from a thirty-year highly-protected private life in a secret society across the stepping stone toward the public.

In my semi-public Society of Secrets[®], members were allowed to invite family into the private association and introduce them to my Neothink[®] literature on generating outside-the-box wealth, romance, health. (But I kept my definitive treatment to curing aging guarded and private until now as you are among the first to know). Members of my semi-public Society of Secrets[®], however, still could not reach out to the general public (or defend my honor on the Internet).

With that stepping stone in place, moving me toward the public, I was able to release some information about myself. In March 2007, my pet-project Grand Canyon Skywalk opened to the public. My marathon Neothink[®] sessions with Skywalk partner David Jin brought this outside-the-box, award-winning engineering marvel to the world. Our structure dramatically raised the standard of living of the Hualapai Indian Tribe upon whose land the Glass Bridge was built, a source of great pride to me.

In that same year of moving my work from secret toward the public, I parlayed my political writings into a political party: the Twelve Visions Party with the purpose of raising the standard of living of everyone including the poor, a source of great concern to me.

I continued to make my findings and writings on Neothink[®] more available to the public and opened my semi-public Society of Secrets[®] to greater public access, which led me to renaming my Society of Secrets[®]. I renamed my increasingly public society after my life-changing discovery: Neothink[®]. The newly named Neothink[®] Society made my findings, literature, and actions increasingly accessible to the general public. For the first time, I gave members — new and old alike — permission to freely post their thoughts and feelings about Neothink[®] on the Internet. There was an overwhelming outpouring of love, appreciation, and inspiration as thousands of stories, testimonials, comments on my Neothink[®] writings, Neothink[®] Society, Twelve Visions Party filled the Internet. Also, members — new and long-time members alike — for the first time were allowed to start dispelling the misinformation built up over thirty years of my secrecy. Members were finally able to start giving contextual rebuttals to the attacks that ran rampant and undefended against me and my secretive works on the Internet. Members took it upon themselves to seek out those attacks that piled up while I worked privately in a secret society and, for the first time, offered the honest facts and full context.

Today when you google “Mark Hamilton Neothink®” or “Mark Hamilton TVP” or “Neothink® Society” or “Twelve Visions Party”, you will see thousands of people who love my Neothink® Manuscripts for the good they have brought people and their families. My life is a life devoted to raising the prosperity, love and happiness of the human race. My end goal is for all people – including today’s poor – to live a wealthy creation-driven life, an exhilarating romantic and youthful life, a happy life full of financial, romantic, and family good fortune...for far longer than we experience life today...perhaps someday forever. I developed the ideas, systems, and structures needed to achieve my multi-faceted, multi-layered goal during my secretive thirty-three-year research and development project. I compiled my findings, breakthroughs, discoveries and Neothink® Techniques...including my momentous treatment to curing aging...and put them into my Neothink® Manuscripts. This turnkey tome provides the breakthrough steps and systems to universally eradicate poverty as well as immediately put the ordinary individual on a fast-track to a wealthy life. The turnkey techniques lead that individual to wealth, happiness, romance and youth – to the life worth living forever.

My goal in life is to cure poverty and disease and enable everyone – today’s poor and rich alike – to live a wealthy, healthy, happy life and to live far longer than we do today, ultimately forever. I have devoted my entire life to this very complex goal.

I recently released to the world what I kept hidden for over thirty-three years — my greatest gift to mankind — my secret formula to curing aging.

Everything is in here — everything I’ve worked so hard to keep hidden for the past thirty-three years in order to keep it pure, untainted, uninfluenced by establishment ‘experts’ and unassailable by establishment authorities. The cure to aging is the greatest breakthrough to come to mankind, and I am releasing it only to those who are interested in this subject.

I must warn you that those who are interested in truly curing aging as well as enhancing their financial and romantic

Nothing you have read or tested before can definitively lift your standard of living and financial condition as can this Neothink® Information. Thousands have commented throughout the Internet on the breakthrough nature of Neothink® since I went public with Neothink®. This section takes my Neothink® Information into a whole new dimension not seen before. Its cure to aging and cure to low standards of living surpass anything else available on Earth.

Any ordinary person will become extraordinary with this information. Lives change overnight when touched by this Neothink® Information.

I finally feel free, finally bringing my thirty-three-year work to the public. I often feared this day would never come, and the world would never see this gift. I dreaded that idea. But I kept my work secret to protect it from those who would have stopped me both mentally, i.e., the ‘experts’, and physically, i.e., the authorities. Now, finally, triumphantly, here it is!

Study and share this highly-guarded information now before it has any chance to vanish. The value of Neothink® is seen by the outpouring of original comments and testimonials filling the Internet since I crossed the stepping stone into the public mode. Of course, there are misguided attacks upon me (and my writings) from the thirty-plus years I and other secret-society members could not defend my honor. But since I stepped out of a secret society and formed the semi-public Society of Secrets® that evolved into the fully public Neothink® Society...the outpourings of love and appreciation for the values received from my Neothink® Manuscripts have been overwhelming. Simply google “The Neothink® Society” to see such an outpouring of love and appreciation of Neothink® Values received — from monetary values to romantic values to happiness itself. And now, I have released my greatest Neothink® Value of all: The Prime Cure, of which you hold the underlying core secret...the secret formula to curing aging (over the following pages of this Prologue).

Establishment authorities have tried to silence my thirty-three-year work, my gift to the world. I sincerely hope those who want to cure aging and death do not hesitate to study and share this precious information. Introduce it to your loved ones. Keeping this research project secret for three decades as I developed these Neothink® breakthroughs took a toll on me. But, it was the only way. Similarly, the definitive cure to aging could not be done, the experts once said. But outside-the-box Neothink® made the definitive cure to aging possible. And my thirty-three-year Neothink® Journey also uncovered the never-before-fathomable, outside-the-box Neothink® cures to financial depression, emotional stagnation, romantic dissatisfaction, political subjugation, and I captured those cures as well. Indeed, this Neothink® Information gives you everything you need to gain financial wealth, emotional exhilaration, romantic success, and everything behind the never-before-conceived, definitive treatment to curing aging.

The Journey

Over thirty years ago when I began my journey to cure aging, the concept was alien to most people. Back then, the idea of curing aging seemed like quackery. Any serious discussion on my part about choosing to live for 150 years, 200 years, or longer caused my listeners' eyes to glaze over.

Three decades ago I learned that people really did NOT want to live much longer than their life expectancy. I learned that I was battling both perceived quackery and apathy. Early on, I realized I could not reveal my true goal in life and that I had to work toward my goal in secret, which explains my involvement and isolation in a secret society for three decades. I told no one beyond my closest loved ones and those in the secret society about my deepest mission in life: to cure aging and give people the choice not to die.

In order to successfully proceed on my secret mission to cure aging, I realized I first had to learn why people did not want that choice not to die. This began an amazing journey into the human psyche. I learned that the world's business structures and nearly all our jobs — our routine ruts — block the very essence of our minds: the ability to create. Instead nearly all jobs bring us the very anti-essence of our minds: the inability to create...in other words, we stagnate.

Our innate ability to create values — creation — exhilarates us and brings us abiding happiness. By contrast, our inability to create values — stagnation — drains us and brings us unhappiness and eventually depression. No one wants to live too long with stagnation, unhappiness, and depression.

Over the decades I discovered and developed the great breakthrough to creation: Neothink[®]. With Neothink[®], I was able to create a business-and-job structure never seen before; I invented the division of essence, which is a momentous leap beyond the division of labor. The division of essence breaks down or divides the creative essence of any business into creative jobs that all have a piece of the company's creative open-ended essence. Now, through the division of essence, all jobs can spark and nurture every employee's creativity. Creating values for the first time, a person's mind springs to life and discovers what it was meant to do. Dead-end stagnation vanishes as open-ended value creation takes over. Exhilaration instantly and permanently replaces stagnation. The person discovers that elusive "something more" to life...the life he or she was meant to live but never had before.

Until now, nearly all businesses and jobs have been stuck in the only dimension known on Earth: the division-of-labor business structure divided into dead-end jobs that pull employees down into stagnation. With my Neothink[®] Business System, by contrast, businesses and jobs enter a new dimension: the division-of-essence business structure divided into open-ended jobs that lift employees up into value creation, exhilaration, happiness.

What do I mean by dead-end jobs as opposed to open-ended jobs? I use the example in the beginning of one of my manuscripts...the difference between a following-mode worker versus a self-leading-mode worker: the candy cart employee in the streets of New York responsible only for standing and selling where he is told as opposed to the candy cart entrepreneur who is a self-leader. The following-mode worker stood on that same street corner for thirty years and suffered dead-end stagnation whereas the self-leading-mode worker quickly became one of the wealthiest men in the world who employed thousands of people and enjoyed open-ended creation and exhilaration! And that is a true story!

For a decade I created and perfected this entirely new division-of-essence business-and-job structure along with the new self-leader mode in order to bring creativity, exhilaration and happiness (and wealth) into the ordinary workers' lives. By bringing people value creation, I brought them exhilaration, wealth, happiness and, for the first time, the desire to live longer — the demand for anti-aging cures. For decades I sold my Neothink® Techniques for value creation, wealth, and happiness to specially selected individuals without mentioning my yet deeper mission: to make people so happy that the demand for anti-aging cures becomes universal and overwhelming. My deeper mission was kept secret, highly guarded in a secret society.

During my amazing journey to bring this new business-and-job structure to the world — the division of essence in which everyone becomes creative, wealthy and happy — I knew I had to eventually deal with the second obstacle blocking the cure to aging: the thick web of government regulations, legislation, and litigation that blocks the rapid progress and access to the marketplace necessary to arrest this most complex of diseases...aging.

Once again using Neothink®, I created a political system that enters a new dimension never seen anywhere or anytime on Earth. The world's political structures have all fallen into the same dimension in which initiatory force inherently exists in the ruling class. Never before has any civilization entered the dimension in which initiatory force is banished in government. I developed a never-before-fathomed political system and founded the Twelve Visions Party with its Prime Law and Protection-Only Budget to bring that new dimension to the world.

With that new political system under the Prime Law of no initiatory force, the debilitating thick web of regulations, legislation and litigation goes away. Pure freedom remains, and technology can advance at rapid speeds never seen before. Unhindered super-rapidly-advancing new technologies, driven forward by an overwhelming demand for anti-aging cures, would bring us the cure within a decade.

Uncovering The Secret Formula

Of course, for three decades I did not reveal my deeper mission. I did not reveal that the new political paradigm was a piece to my superpuzzle of curing aging. I did tell people the honest truth that my new business paradigm and political paradigm would bring them wealth, health, happiness, peace, and love...but I did NOT fully reveal that those new paradigms were pieces to my superpuzzle of curing aging. Before now, that revelation would have defeated the credibility of those two life-improving paradigms. The secret society surrounding me was very real, and I worked my thirty-three-year, cure-to-aging mission in secret until now.

Now the whole superpuzzle is revealed, piece by piece, in my 2800-page release titled The Prime Cure: The Definitive Treatment to Curing Aging. By creating the Neothink® Business System and the Neothink® Political System and by actualizing those new paradigms through the Neothink® Society with its Business and Social Alliance and through the Twelve Visions Party with its Prime Law and Protection-Only Budget, I bring to the world the elements needed to accomplish man's greatest responsibility: curing aging.

With this publication, I come out of a thirty-three-year-old secret mission. I hold nothing back and reveal everything needed to definitively cure aging. Indeed, personal creativity (personal wealth and happiness, paradigm one) + universal freedom (universal wealth and happiness, paradigm two) = cure to aging.

Let us now look at my seven Neothink® Treatments to curing aging (the ideas, visions, systems, and structures that must spread to the masses as part of the two anti-establishment Neothink® Paradigms of creativity and freedom):

Seven Neothink® Treatments To Definitively Cure Aging And Bring Us Universal Creativity, Freedom, Wealth & Happiness

Treatment One: Neothink® Business Secrets for a Wealthy Creation-Driven Eternal Life (Remove The Obstacle To Creativity, Wealth, Happiness & The Desire To Live Forever)

Cure To Aging

When I began to pursue the journey to end aging over thirty years ago, I wondered, why was there not a momentous worldwide drive to cure aging? Why did not anti-aging efforts dominate our newspapers, businesses, research and development programs? Why not? Hollywood movies portrayed eternal life as a curse. Even my close friends told me bluntly that they would not want to live too long.

Without people wanting it — without a large universal demand — the necessary drive and motivation from the world's greatest minds and businesses would not happen...the cure to aging would not, could not happen. What was causing the world to not want the cure to aging? I decided I had to start my journey by determining why people did not really want, really demand the cure to the complex disease aging. For without that want, without an overpowering demand, without a worldwide drive by our best minds and resources to cure aging...that complex disease could not be cured.

After years of research and findings, I unearthed the problem: The human mind requires creativity to remain healthy and growing. The human mind is the only thing in our known universe that can create. It is designed to create. It is meant to create. It is not designed or meant to stagnate. If our minds are not living in an environment in which they are creating, then they are stagnating. And with stagnation, the human mind will ultimately demand its death. A stagnant person is NOT the person he or she was meant to be.

After years of working with this first of two obstacles preventing a momentous worldwide drive of our best minds and technological resources toward curing aging, I knew our lives exist in an environment that blocks our minds from what they were designed to do: create.

Trapped in this job/business structure we live in, our jobs become our source of stagnation — boring routine ruts — as opposed to our source of creation. My first mission in this journey was to tackle our job/business structures and invert the inversion. In other words, our businesses — YOUR JOB — must no longer be your source of stagnation. Our businesses — YOUR JOB — must become YOUR SOURCE OF CREATION. And when we make the connection that our minds — that we — are happy when creating and unhappy when stagnating, then our jobs must become our growing source of happiness as opposed to our growing source of unhappiness. Indeed, my first treatment: I set out to make our minds creative as they were meant to be.

What I accomplished over the next several years was a new paradigm, a new business and job structure. I invented a complete business/job system — the Neothink® System — that brings creation-driven lives to all workers. As you will learn, a new mentality I termed Neothink® was needed to invent this new business paradigm that delivers creativity and, therefore, happiness to every person's job. Treatment One brings you the Neothink® Business System and happiness...the exhilaration and happiness that comes with creating values for the world...the exhilaration and happiness (and wealth) that makes you want to live forever.

Treatment Two: Twelve Neothink® Visions that Take Us Into a Rich & Happy Immortal World (Remove The Obstacle To Creation, Motivation, & The Desire To Live Forever)

The Neothink® Business System in Treatment One removes the first obstacle blocking the worldwide demand for curing aging. It brings us a new business structure in which we live creation-driven lives and leave behind stagnation-bound lives. While developing the Neothink® Business System, I experienced Twelve Neothink® Visions of our future world free of stagnation. Those Neothink® Visions show us how to remove all forms of stagnation from our lives. Those Twelve Neothink® Visions show us the future Twelve Visions World in which we are filled with the exhilarating thrill-of-life every single day. See how we become stimulated value creators with exhilarating jobs and businesses, beautiful spouses and bodies and minds, pure freedom and peace, abundant wealth and health. In the Twelve Visions World, we love life at a level not known in today's stagnant world. In the Twelve Visions World, we live the life we were meant to live...a life worth living forever. The demand, the cry for curing aging (or ending death through super-advanced technologies) becomes overwhelming in that world. Treatment

Two completes the first step of removing stagnation from our lives, necessary to ignite a worldwide drive for curing aging and ending death.

Treatment Three: Neothink® Political Paradigm for Wealth, Health, Peace & The Freedom To Cure Aging (Remove The Obstacle To Wealth & Freedom & Super Rapidly Advancing New Technologies)

Once I developed the Neothink® Business System with its entirely new structure of business in which everyone becomes an exhilarated value creator, and once I captured my Twelve Neothink® Visions of the Twelve Visions World in which everyone becomes free from debilitating stagnation, once I put forth those elements that remove the first obstacle blocking a worldwide drive toward curing aging (i.e., the lack of demand), then I began to move on the second obstacle blocking a worldwide drive to curing aging (i.e., the lack of freedom). That second obstacle involved the political structure in which we live.

The only political systems ever known, including the American political system, are those with a ruling class that can rule over society, backed by the use of initiatory force (as distinguished from self-defense and property-protection force). With the many, many political agendas constantly at work — the political-agenda laws, the political-agenda regulations, the political-agenda “justice” backed by initiatory force — our progress and technologies are held back.

So I pursued my second major step toward curing aging. Over the next several years I developed an entirely new political system — one based on no ruling class and no use of initiatory force. This new political structure has never been known or practiced. It is a completely new dimension of politics, law, and civilization. The new political dimension will swish away the debilitating web of political-agenda laws, regulations, and litigation backed by initiatory force. Only in such a wide-open and purely free environment, motivated by an overwhelming demand for longer life, can research and technologies advance at the uninhibited record paces needed to bring us the cure to aging.

Uncovering The Secret Formula

My new political party, The Twelve Visions Party, spearheads the Neothink® Political Movement of no more ruling class, no more initiatory force. The Twelve Visions Party (or TVP) brings us a never-before-fathomed political structure that opens the way for rapid progress — super rapid progress necessary to cure aging in our lifetimes. Treatment Three brings us the political system needed to remove the second major obstacle to curing aging and open the country and the world to super rapidly advancing new technologies needed for curing aging.

*Treatment Four: Neothink® Mentality Needed To Cure Aging
(Remove The Obstacle To Our Next Evolutionary Leap)*

During my thirty-three-year journey, I learned that our mental structure today is not capable of curing a disease as complex as aging. During my journey, I discovered our next evolution into a superior mental structure — a new mentality I named Neothink®. Through self-leader-mode integrated thinking (as opposed to following-mode specialized thinking today), Neothink® fits together knowledge like a growing puzzle. Eventually, a puzzle-picture forms revealing new knowledge, a breakthrough never seen before. This new Neothink® mentality is man's next evolutionary leap. This new Neothink® mentality was needed to break through to each of the seven treatments and is needed to break through to the physical cure for aging. Treatment four brings this new mental structure, the Neothink® mentality, to the world and brings enormous advantages to you!

Treatment Five: A New Dimension of Emotions From An Immortal World

Treatment Six: Neothink® Actions to Cure Aging & Discover Eternal Youth

Treatment Seven: Neothink® Superpuzzle-Picture of Eternal Life

After I had spent nearly a quarter century developing and perfecting the previous four Treatments, I realized people needed even more than the new ideas, systems, and structures I had provided them. People also needed to see and emotionally feel what will happen to them in the immortal Twelve Visions World, for they have never even glimpsed, no less experienced that world before. Creating that world on paper and charting the treasure map into the Twelve Visions World — the treasure, of course, is living a wealthy, happy, peaceful life for much, much longer — I spent the next nine years developing Treatments Five, Six and Seven...The Superpuzzle Trilogy.

Those three unique treatments pull the full Neothink® puzzle-picture together for you to see and feel. The story from the new world pulls you into that immortal world and envelops you in its emotions and experiences. You see, feel, and experience the Twelve Visions World as you move through the Superpuzzle Trilogy. Treatment Five fills you with the emotional conception of the new world as you experience a deeper love for life. Treatment Six consumes you with the anti-aging war in the new world as you personally begin to want that longer life. Treatment Seven overwhelms you with the big picture of the new world as you feel, perhaps for the first time in your adult life, the desire to live forever.

While reading Treatments Five, Six, and Seven, we eagerly experience and strongly desire the Twelve Visions World and its wealth, health, peace and immortality.

The Sound Approach to Curing Aging & Discovering Eternal Life

I have over the past thirty-three years constructed the sound approach to the enormously complex challenge of curing aging. The seven treatments provide everything needed to start and complete the process of curing aging.

The process of curing aging is something never properly conceptualized before this manuscript. The process to curing aging begins far from the laboratories and is far too complex and demanding for today's research and development programs, research funding, and research freedom. To cure this extraordinarily complex disease of cellular degeneration requires 1) absolute research and development freedom, which involves removing politics, and 2) overwhelming marketplace demand, which involves multiplying personal happiness and igniting the desire for longer life. Without both an overwhelming demand for curing aging among essentially all ordinary people and without absolute freedom for curing aging among essentially all research and development programs...without both those demand-and-supply dynamics, the cure for aging will not happen. Small advances toward anti-aging will continue to make news, but if we want to cure cancer, heart disease, and ultimately cure aging itself during our lifetimes, the new structures and systems I have put in place provide the only approach.

My Supply & Demand Approach

Demand Side: Replace stagnation with ongoing creation, exhilaration, wealth and happiness.

Supply Side: Replace the heavily legislated, regulated, and litigated medical field with pure unburdened freedom.

My approach 1) causes the demand for anti-aging to dramatically grow and intensify and 2) opens up and frees the research-and-development path for rapid medical progress. As the demand rises, so will the supply and will crescendo with the cure to the most complex diseases, eventually aging itself.

In short, to cure aging, first we must cure personal financial suppression, emotional stagnation, and political subjugation. Neothink® Information does that job. Indeed, the Neothink® Manuscripts work to cure financial suppression, emotional stagnation, and political subjugation along this journey to curing aging. Life becomes something very different...something beautiful...something you never want to end!

Embark on this life-lifting journey of no return. Everything is provided — from the ideas to the new structures and systems and turnkey techniques themselves. Cure To Aging

The Prime Cure: A Worldwide Drive

Let me be perfectly clear: In order to accomplish this extraordinarily complex feat of curing aging requires not one company or scientist, but the full might of the resources on our planet including the best minds, the deepest coffers, unhindered research and development, powerful motivation, purely free and open competition. The extremely complex cure to aging can come about only by first establishing the psychological (stagnation-free) and political (subjugation-free) conditions worldwide that generate massive anti-aging demand and, therefore, enormous motivation and driving, unburdened competition around the world. Only such a worldwide demand and free-and-open drive of our best minds and resources not held back by political regulations and legislation could reverse nature and bring about a cure to the most complex disease called human cellular degeneration or aging.

During my thirty-three-year mission, I uncovered omnipresent psychological and political subjugation by our leaders, blocking wealth and happiness and, therefore, blocking a massive demand to cure aging and a subsequent worldwide drive to supply the demand. That subjugation must be removed in order to cure aging. In fact, observing the psychological and political subjugation of the human race enabled me to determine the cause-and-effect formula that is, in essence, the cure to aging, as follows:

The Formula (The Fundamental Cure to Aging)

Step One (Cause): Remove adults' growing stagnation and replace stagnation with growing exhilaration via a creation-driven life. The demand for anti-aging will explode.

Step Two (Cause): Remove society's debilitating web of regulations, legislation, litigation and replace political subjugation with wide-open unhindered freedom and progress. The supply of anti-aging cures will rise to the demand.

Uncovering The Secret Formula

Step Three (Effect): Within one decade, super-rapidly-advancing new technologies driven forward by Neothink® mentalities will arrest aging.

Once I uncovered the cause-and-effect, supply-and-demand formula to curing aging, I then proceeded to create and put in place the new systems that would provide the right conditions, the cause to the effect...THE definitive treatment to curing aging.

First I had to idealize the conditions needed to achieve the cure. Then I had to conceive the practical paradigms and develop the new systems and structures that would actualize what I idealized. I idealize those conditions in the 2800-page Prime Cure Neothink® Manuscript. I actualize those conditions through new paradigms and systems described in that manuscript and put into practice in my Neothink® Society and the Twelve Visions Party.

To cure aging, I must put all the pieces into place: the Neothink® Business System that leads to value creation, wealth, personal exhilaration, the thrill of life, harmony with oneself and deep fulfillment that desires life and longevity...the Neothink® Social Clubhouses that bring good people together along with financial, personal, romantic opportunities and harmony with one's fellow man and deep fulfillment that desires life and longevity...the Neothink® Business Alliance that brings good business people and their enterprises together for synergy and increasingly benevolent benefits that help everyone's financial position and standard of living...the Neothink® School that teaches my readers the Neothink® Mentality...the Neothink® Political System for a get-out-of-the-way, protection-only government via the Twelve Visions Party and its Prime Law, which will swish away the political web (that catches and devours free and rapid progress), enabling the supply side of anti-aging solutions to rise to the demand side.

Indeed, the cure to aging starts well before the physical cure itself. First, the conditions have to be set. And setting those conditions within my Neothink® Society brings immediate benefits to you. The Neothink® Society makes life worth living forever. Here are the already-established conditions in the Neothink® Society, set for life worth living forever:

Conditions Already Established In The Neothink® Society
That Make Life Worth Living Forever

Condition #1) First, the demand for longevity must become enormous to attract the large money and major research and development programs required to cure this complex disease. The demand for longevity grows exponentially as people rise from their boring ruts of stagnation into exhilarating lives of creation as taught in the Neothink® Society. As I show in Treatments One and Two, nearly all jobs and business paradigms are currently set up for limited use of our minds and creativity, which leads to stagnation. The human mind was designed for creation and slowly dies from stagnation. My new business and job paradigm found only in Treatments One and Two (and further taught in the Neothink® Society) — my division of essence delivered through the Neothink® Business System — brings creativity to our jobs and opens our minds as they were designed to exist. The human mind is the only thing on Earth that can CREATE. Without creation, the human mind falls far below its potential and slowly stagnates and dies. With creation, the human mind lives in beautiful harmony with its nature and continually grows, expands, and experiences the exhilarating life it was meant to live...as it did as a young child. Value creation to the adult mind is play. The adult who creates values plays at life and loves life and does not want to slow down and lose his or her play time. The adult who creates demands longevity. My new business paradigm called the division of essence, delivered to you through my Neothink® Business System, brings creation to each and every job for all people...even those currently stuck in unbearable routine ruts and physical labor! The Neothink® Business System is a major breakthrough in business and in each individual's life. Mentors in the Neothink® Society help you implement the Neothink® Business System (Treatment One). This new business/job paradigm is one of the complex requirements for creating the demand needed for curing aging. Moreover, consider this major benefit of the Neothink® Business System and your transition into value creation: the open-ended possibilities at wealth creation! In the Neothink® Society, my top mentors work with you each step of the way. The emotional and financial benefits are life-changing! My mentors are waiting for you in the Neothink® Society — to help you begin your creation-driven life!

Condition #2) Second, imagine making lifelong friends and finding lucrative business opportunities. Man is a social animal and thrives in a community of value creators contributing to society. In such a positive community, one makes lifelong friends, encounters multiple business opportunities, meets potential romantic love partners. All of those major benefits are happening in the Neothink® Society, with the Neothink® Clubhouses and the Neothink® Business Alliance. Those beneficial social and business networks are part of the complex ingredient for harmony and happiness and the desire/demand for longevity. The Neothink® Society and the many Neothink® Social Clubhouses and the online social networking of like-minded positive and creative people along with the widespread Neothink® Business Alliance bring harmony, happiness, opportunities and stimulation the human mind and body need to desire and demand longevity.

Condition #3) As the demand for longevity grows, the resources and technologies that can bring us anti-aging solutions must be free to rapidly advance. In other words, the politicization of the medical, business, science and research worlds must end. We must depoliticize society in general to remove the web of regulations, legislation, and litigation that makes rapid progress impossible. This is the supply side of the demand-and-supply formula for curing aging. For the supply of anti-aging solutions to rise to the demand created by the Neothink® Business System and the Neothink® Social System, we need a Neothink® Political System that will depoliticize America and then the world. I have created such a Neothink® Political System. The Twelve Visions Party embodies that new-dimension, Neothink® Political System. The Twelve Visions Party with its Prime-Law Amendment and Protection-Only Budget lifts us for the first time into a protection-only, purely free political dimension. Treatment Three delivers that entirely new political structure needed to unleash progress and achieve the cure to aging.

Cure To Aging

When the demand for anti-aging expands exponentially (Treatments One and Two) and the path to supply anti-aging solutions is wide open (Treatment Three)...only within those conditions of powerful motivation and pure freedom can something so complex as curing aging be achieved. I have put everything into place with the Neothink® Business System and its Business Alliance, the Neothink® Visions and their Twelve Visions World, the Neothink® Society and its Social Clubhouses, the Neothink® Political System and its Twelve Visions Party. I provide the conditions in the Neothink® Society from which the cure to aging can rise. The cure will happen once my Neothink® Systems — business, social, political — become widespread. My Neothink® Society and its new Neothink® School teach my Neothink® Systems, but they must be taught to the masses. Of course, the establishment would never support my Neothink® Systems that will obsolete the failing establishment. The established New York publishers, national bookstore chains, national media, for example, would never disseminate my writings and teachings. So, I designed a brand-new, unique network marketing program to bring the Neothink® Society and my Neothink® Systems to the masses through word-of-mouth.

My gift to mankind is: idealizing the conditions that will bring us the cure to poverty, stagnation, tyranny, and aging, and then actualizing those conditions with unique Neothink® Systems found in the Neothink® Society — unique business, political, and social systems. The Neothink® Society brings those Neothink® Systems to the people in order to make life far better — make life worth living forever. Bring your loved ones, family, friends into the Neothink® Society today. The Neothink® Society is the forerunner — a microcosm — of our future Twelve Visions World in which everyone is wealthy, healthy, youthful, and at peace.

Lifting the Veil, Exposing the Secret

Now I will finally lift the veil off my works to reveal my most highly-guarded secret, hidden underneath for over thirty years. Although I worked privately in a secret society and let selected people read my works...not until now do I reveal my deepest secret beneath all my works:

Uncovering The Secret Formula

My Money-Making Works: Whereas members for years read and learned my Neothink® business techniques for making more money and becoming creative, my deeper secret was providing a business-and-job structure in which people would rise above stagnation and experience exhilarating creation. They would discover the creation-driven lives they were meant to live. Therefore, a deep-rooted desire for living longer would sprout and grow in my readers.

My Future-Telling Works: Whereas members for years read and learned my Twelve Neothink® Visions for their powerful advantages “from the future”, my deeper secret was providing the integrated pieces to the future Twelve Visions World — an immortal world of happy value creators...romantic, wealthy, healthy people living in happiness and peace for longer and longer lives, eventually becoming immortals. My readers’ deep-rooted desire for living longer could now grow stronger as they were “shown the way”.

My Politics/Prosperity/Peace Works: Whereas members for years read and learned my Neothink® political paradigm for its path to universal wealth, health, and peace, my deeper secret was providing the path to depoliticizing America including the medical industry (and industry in general) so that doctors, scientists, businesses could someday race forward uninhibited toward curing aging, especially to someday meet the rising anti-aging demand with the success of the Neothink® jobs-and-business structure and twelve Neothink® visions.

My Mind-Power Works: Whereas members for years read and learned the new Neothink® mentality for its ability to outflank even the most intelligent people, my deeper secret was teaching people how to become self-leaders in order to break away from their leaders. Those self-leaders would then discover their creative passions rising from their deepest motivational roots. Liberated self-leaders live the extraordinary creation-driven lives they were meant to live. They love life. They no longer live according to how they are told to live; they no longer suffer in silent stagnation that comes from the following-mode life almost everyone endures today. The Neothink® mentality is needed to experience the exhilarating creation-driven life suited to live far, far longer than seven or eight short decades. And the leap into the Neothink® Mentality that outflanks intelligence with the new integrated-thinking, puzzle-building mentality is needed to cure the extremely complex diseases such as cancer, heart disease, and ultimately aging itself.

My Seminal Story: Whereas members for years read my trilogy that brings a deeper love and powerful meaning into our lives, my deeper secret was enveloping my readers in the emotions of the future immortal Twelve Visions World so they could feel and fall in love with that world. The deeper purpose behind my Superpuzzle Trilogy was to awaken our forgotten child of the past who still seeks the creation-driven life. That exhilarating creation-driven life awaits us in the Twelve Visions World and while reading Superpuzzle. I pull my readers into the life their child of the past always wanted...the life worth living forever.

During my over thirty years of work, I kept secret my deeper meaning until now. After thirty years, I am pulling off the veil so my deeper secret meanings can shine through.

Cure To Aging

The Mind That Can Live Forever

“OH WOW...OH WOW...OH WOW...”

— Steve Jobs
(Last Words)

The rare creation-driven mind — for example, the mind of Steve Jobs — is never finished. The creation-driven mind exists at the beginning, middle, and end stages of creative ventures and, unlike most of us, is psychologically incapable of being “finished” with life. Steve Jobs was working and creating right to the end, even when his death was imminent. The rare creation-driven mind can never fully grasp its own end — until the final moments. And when the end does come, the moment packs an overwhelming wallop that counters everything that creation-driven mind has ever known: now it must STOP and FINISH. For the first time in its existence, that open-ended creation-driven mind is forced to shut down.

As every creative thought must stop, finish, and die...that creation-driven mind would be overwhelmed with the alien idea of being finished...in almost disbelief that this is it, it's really all over...I AM dying...finished. The moment overwhelmed Steve Jobs' beautiful creation-driven mind. The emotional expressions at the very end reflect Steve Jobs' beautiful open-ended, creation-driven mind facing something shocking — coming to its close: OH WOW...this is it. OH WOW...it's really all over. OH WOW...I AM dying...finished.

Of course, no one can say for sure. I have spent over thirty years studying the rare creation-driven mind and how to lift the ordinary close-ended stagnation-buried “mortal” mind into the rare open-ended creation-driven “immortal” mind. I have written several books and founded the Neothink® Society to help people make the transition. Over three decades of researching the creation-driven mind, I have found that this rare “immortal” mind (despite what the person might believe religiously) — from Francis Bacon to Steve Jobs — is NEVER finished with life...with its growing creations...and truly cannot imagine the moment when it is forced to be finished. When Mother Nature forces that final moment on the never-finished creation-driven “immortal” mind...well, the reality that it is now finished...that it is now dying, that it is all over...is overwhelming. OH WOW..this is it. OH WOW...it's really all over. OH WOW...I AM dying...finished.

I have written that the rare creation-driven mind is the ONLY mind that could live forever if given the technology to do so, for the creation-driven mind is always creating and exhilarated. It knows exhilaration and does not know stagnation, which is the scourge, the mind-disease that makes the concept of immortality a curse to the general populace. Although Steve Jobs talked about death being nature’s “change agent”, his creation-driven mind was not finished, and it would have never been finished.

A Preview On How To Achieve The Immortal Mind

Steve Jobs' 2005 Stanford commencement speech is a treat to listen to. If you want to take a few moments to treat yourself to his inspiring speech, google "Steve Jobs' Stanford Commencement Speech" and click on the link. Learn from me how to specifically do what Jobs so enticingly suggests: follow your heart for a life of immense passion, vision, and insane wealth.

Jobs eloquently explains in that Stanford speech how all our lives we have been taught to listen to and follow others such as our leaders in politics and at work. Steve Jobs was absolutely right when he said: what we should follow is our own hearts. He implores the graduating students of Stanford not to listen to authority and to instead follow their own hearts. Ah, such great Neothink® advice! In other words, he is saying: discover and do what you love to do with your life and become insanely wealthy doing what you LOVE TO DO!

Following your heart, discovering and doing what you love to do with your life — at any age — requires uncovering something called your Friday-Night Essence. You will read about this in my manuscript. Your Friday-Night Essence is work that you love so much you could actually be happy doing it on a Friday Night! It is your deepest motivational root.

Discovering your deepest motivational root — your Friday-Night Essence — happens while reading the Neothink® Manuscripts and is supported in the Neothink® Society. Today, you can discover your Friday-Night Essence and deepest motivational root!

You can discover how to live with Steve Jobs' passion, vision, and insane wealth! Jobs implored the graduating class at Stanford to no longer follow others' expectations including our leaders, but to instead live life as self-leaders following their own hearts. Jobs did that himself and became super happy and insanely rich. Treatment One gives you the very specific tools to do that...to become super happy and insanely rich — to not only discover, but to live the exhilarating, creation-driven life you were meant to live. I implore you (as Jobs did to the students at Stanford) to follow your heart! You hold in your hands instant access to the highly-guarded secrets, the turnkey details on how to follow your heart and live your Friday-Night Essence.

Living that life you were meant to live — that exhilarating creation-driven life that Steve Jobs lived — takes you through the momentous and wonderful leap from a value producer to a value creator. A value producer works a worthy job but is stuck in a routine rut following others' expectations. That is what your leaders expect from you. None of us are wealthy or much excited about life doing what our leaders expect from us. A value creator — a Steve Jobs — on the other hand, works an open-ended job and creates and elevates values and makes a difference while following his or her heart. The human mind is the only thing on Earth that can create; the human mind was meant to create. It lives for creation; it slowly dies from stagnation. Steve Jobs created and was incredibly successful and wealthy. When you learn to create, you discover a deep harmony with yourself and your purpose in life. When you learn to create, you discover your true self (not your leaders' version of "you"). You can, for the first time, finally follow your heart to happiness and wealth. The Neothink® Manuscripts teach members how to think in a new way — Neothink® — the secret to creation.

Here you will find yourself — the true you beneath the appearances...down to what is. Just imagine who you might discover! Someone very special!

A little known secret is: creating and following your heart requires perceiving the world in pictures instead of words. Here you learn how to join the geniuses who think...in visions — in pictures. This requires a new way of thinking called Neothinking. Neothink® snaps together knowledge like puzzle pieces to build puzzle-pictures — visions — the visions of geniuses. You learn how to Neothink® and to see with great vision into the future. Steve Jobs famously thought in visions. Steve Jobs' key to success and wealth was Neothink®. He saw things before others. He famously saw and knew what the people wanted and needed before the people themselves knew it. And with such vision of a Steve Jobs — of a self-leader — you too will make "insane" money. Of course, Steve Jobs was a multi-billionaire. Riding your Friday-Night Essence, nourished by your deepest motivational root, breaking through to a creation-driven life...well you could conceivably make that kind of money too. Become the person you were meant to be, the person your child of the past once dreamed about becoming...the person who followed his or her heart. Neothink® will take you there.

With these Neothink® visions, you will begin to see major common denominators that others don't see. Seeing common-denominator needs, seeing what a lot of people need and want...even before they know it, is a Steve Jobs special talent that you can have, too. You just need to bring out that hidden talent in you with these turnkey techniques. Seeing common-denominator needs is the key to making creative breakthroughs that a LOT of people want! And the result of creating something a lot of people want is wealth (sought after or not) as Steve Jobs discovered. Like the young child who suddenly sees the world of words around him, here you learn how to suddenly see the world of common denominators all around you. Here you will become a genius, even a wealthy genius.

Earning a living doing what you love to do, (or even better, becoming wealthy doing what you love to do) is everyone's life-ambition. That simply means: follow your heart to discover your Friday-Night Essence...and then use Neothinking to become wealthy pursuing your Friday-Night Essence! Become the person you were born to be...the deeply-motivated, exhilarated person your child of the past dreamed about becoming. The Neothink® Manuscripts teach you everything you need to know to live the life of a Steve Jobs and to become that person following your heart...right here, right now in the Neothink® Society, which I open to you.

Here you will discover a deeper love for life, the love Steve Jobs talks about in his moving Stanford speech. When you live in harmony with your deepest motivational root, you feel the thrill of life. Life becomes an exhilarating rush! My members have told me they feel a daily exhilarating rush!

In these pages to follow you will encounter that beautiful euphoria. You will reunite with your long-forgotten child of the past who once knew the potential of who you were born to be. That child of the past felt this deeper love for life. Following your heart, you reunite with your wide-eyed child of the past here. The moment is moving. Your future suddenly is open and limitless. You get this rush every day as a Neothink® Member!

Living your Friday-Night Essence, following your heart, takes you on one hell of a journey! Using Neothink®, you will begin predicting, controlling, and creating the future...just like Neothinker Steve Jobs. In fact, all people in harmony with their motivational root did this: Steve Jobs, Thomas Edison, Henry Ford. They all lived with this deeper love as they followed their hearts. They all loved what they did and were always so excited they “played” hard at work. And they all became wealthy beyond wealthy. I promise you: you have their same special traits. You have the same special traits as those superachievers. This manuscript activates those special traits.

Let me now reveal the rare, hidden traits that are in you: Because you are here now, you have the rare traits of a SEARCHER. Searchers are truly special and rare. Most adults have resigned their lives to their leaders’ design. But Jobs didn’t. And you didn’t. Only searchers have the hidden traits and potential to do something amazing with their lives. You have that. Every superachiever who ever lived was a searcher. Steve Jobs was a searcher. And you are a searcher. You are a rare and special person — you are a searcher. And because you are a searcher, you are willing to follow your heart! Following your heart requires courage. It may take you off the path others expect from you. But because you are a searcher, you are willing to go there.

Following your heart as a self-leader replaces chronic stagnation with pure exhilaration. Those trapped as value producers, following their leaders instead of their hearts, silently suffer in miserable stagnation. As they age, they lament that “something more” must exist. But where? Right here! Discovering the creation-driven life replaces chronic stagnation with eternal exhilaration. And especially because of the special searcher you are, you will not tolerate stagnation well. In a person like you, stagnation could eventually become depression. But the good news is that you can permanently prevent that depression. You need (and were born for) what I teach in the Neothink® Society. You will find nothing more stimulating. You were born to experience this daily thrill of life!

Following your heart as a searcher who discovers these tools to becoming a self-leader riding high on your Friday-Night Essence, sends you on an exciting downstream rush in your stream of life, passing right by those following their leaders, caught in miserable stagnation in the upstream battle most people suffer in life. By contrast, your downstream rush comes from discovering what you LOVE TO DO and discovering how to make your living and make your wealth doing what you love to do. Making a living doing what one loves to do is everyone's ultimate life-ambition. Becoming wealthy doing what you LOVE TO DO is just pure Heaven on Earth. Many members now live in pure Heaven on Earth as can you. Only searchers have this potential. My Neothink® Members discover what it means "to play" every day as an adult creating values. The long-forgotten child of the past returns in my Neothink® Members. I know you were born for this.

Whereas, knowledge is power, integrating knowledge into Neothink® Superpuzzles is superpower that gives you all the certainty and courage you need to live the creation-driven life. For, through those puzzle-pictures — those visions — you can see into the future, just as Steve Jobs did. Here's how: As the pieces to your puzzle-picture come together, a point will come when you know, as with any puzzle, what the entire picture looks like even before all the pieces are in place. You know what the missing pieces look like before they are there, which is seeing the future. You learn how to see the future right here when you learn Neothink®. And seeing the future gives you great confidence in your creative vector. Others won't see it, but you will! And that is what makes you different — special. Steve Jobs knew and expressed that he was special. He knew it just as you will! He knew what consumers wanted before the consumers knew. Jobs was able to do this through this Neothink® puzzle-building thinking. I know and am expressing right now that you are special in that same way, if you follow your heart.

My Neothink® Manuscripts lift you from the forces of nature that trap us...lift you into the forces of Neothink®. Forces of nature trap us in the follow-the-leader mode of most animals in nature whereas Neothink® breaks us free into self-leader conscious beings following our hearts, seeing our futures. That happens here! And when it does, that is when you soar into the wealthy and exciting creation-driven life you were meant to live.

The sections to follow give you laser-like vision to see through all the man-made illusions around us to see what is... and to see what's ahead. Following your heart with Neothink® leads to sweeping visions, to large puzzle-pictures others just don't see, that snap together through the tools of Neothink® learned here. You will see and create and cash in on the future, just as Jobs did. I am excited for you! This is a rare opportunity coming to you because of your special mind that never resigned!

Following your heart in the Neothink® Society enables you to do things you could never otherwise do. It opens new doors. It enables you to live a life you could otherwise never live. Rise into the super experience that fulfills your special potential. Discover that long-forgotten "something more" mostly everyone gives up on in adult life, but not you. You never resigned. You remained a searcher. The secrets shared and taught here in this members-only manuscript send you through a personal renaissance...the same renaissance Steve Jobs experienced during his life...the same renaissance you will experience for the rest of your life!

People have struck it rich, emotionally and financially with Neothink®. They report there is nothing like these highly-guarded secrets taught here in this Neothink® Members' manuscript...nothing in the world. Their same power is put in your hands...at your fingertips...through the pages to follow. The secrets here in your Neothink® Members' manuscript are offered only to specially selected Neothink® readers — only to the rare searchers. These are highly-guarded, inner-circle secrets taught only in the Neothink® Society. They change everything for the better, immediately. And we only reveal these secrets to the rare searcher...to you.

Members in the Neothink® Clubhouses are here because they too are searchers. You will have that in common with the others: you are all searchers. The power and love by bringing together these special people is something amazing to experience. You all have the special, hidden traits of Steve Jobs himself. In fact, your special traits in particular are so strong, we selected you.

Cure To Aging

I strongly suggest that you get in the Active Neothink® Members' Club — go to the Clubhouses and join the daily learning sessions via the national conference calls. Our members have the intense traits that reside only in the rare superachievers, you as well. Furthermore, most members harbor another intense trait I also saw in Steve Jobs: Down deep, down in the corner of your mind, you are a rebel. This hidden trait of a rebel will enable you to walk away from the grand design of your life — a grand design ultimately shaped by our leaders of society. You and many of our members display the very rare, synergistic combined traits of both a searcher and a rebel. That rare combination of traits is the same combination of rare traits in Steve Jobs and every rare superachiever who ever lived. I am SO EXCITED to mentor you.

Steve Jobs ended his Stanford commencement speech imploring the Stanford graduating class to heed the words on the back cover of the last issue of the Whole Earth Catalogue three decades ago: Stay hungry; stay foolish. YOU are invited into my inner-circle Active Neothink® Members' Club because you are one of the rare rebellious (down deep) adults who have “stayed hungry; stayed foolish”. Your child-like “hunger and foolishness” led you to the Neothink® Society. The searcher in you led you to me. The rebel in you makes the Active Neothink® Members' Club your home. And here, in your new home, as Steve Jobs so eloquently expressed, your entire life will begin connecting the dots. The payoff is huge.

I only invite searchers who are rebels (down deep) to join me and my inner-circle Active Neothink® Members. I feel I have found a real gem when the searcher is, down deep, a rebel! When I find such a special soul, I invite him or her into my inner-circle...into my Active Neothink® Members' Club and our nightly learning sessions. The fact that you searched and found your way to me makes me realize you are one of those gems!

Indeed, you truly are special, you are truly rare, you have the hidden ability to follow your heart and, as Steve Jobs would say, put a dent in the Universe. Not too many people have that potential. You belong here with us...with your soul mates. For the first time in your life, you will become a star — a true genius of society.
