Level-Four Essence Meeting

Introduction

Hello and welcome to your Level-Four Essence Meeting. As you know, this is the meeting in which, for the first time in the history of The Neothink® Society, that we will be going public. This historical meeting will come at you in four parts: 1-The Intro, which we're going through now about going public and marketing, 2-Part One, a network marketing opportunity for you which is a natural Friday Night Essence for many of us here today, and 3-Part Two, the political movement, which is a natural Friday Night Essence for many of us here today and Part Three, forming the formal structure which is starting the C of U on earth.

Let's start off with talking about going public. Now, when I say going public, what we're actually going to do is bring people in, bring the public in, bring anyone in. Bring in as opposed to reach out. Bring in as opposed to spread out. By that I mean people must come in to our society to get the advantages. In fact, the concept of the Secret Society, the Neothink® Secret Society, changes to the Neothink® Society of Secrets or simply The Neothink® Society.

Now, you are beginning to engage in marketing. Recall, in the Level Three Meeting, we talked about Forces of Nature impulses, Forces of Neothink® residuals, and common denominator formats. We'll go into those Neothink® Marketing concepts throughout the three parts of this meeting here today. Now, from your homework in your Level Three Meeting you learned that the driving force behind both Forces of Nature and Forces of Neothink is stimulation. We also talked about common denominator formats. Recall how in Ford Motor Company the common denominator format was the assembly line and we talked about some other common denominator formats. In your case, it was finding the child of the past, searching within you. And it was that common denominator that we used to select you to join or “come into” The Neothink® Society.

Now, getting back to the Neothink® movement of going public... We will find that our common denominator format is going to take the form of Clubhouses and their meetings. For example, the Clubhouse will become a place of belonging, a place of life advantages. I suggest you will set up weekly meetings to bring potential new members in to what I am calling the Introduction Meeting. It is in these Introduction Meetings that you will sign your visitors up as new members to attend Clubhouse Meetings, which are meetings for members only. Some of those new members will subsequently join the political movement and the political meetings. As you'll see, these meetings, these Clubhouse congregations, will grow into the common denominator format for going public.

You will also learn today that you are in the process of turning into a super Neothink® marketer. Remember, the Forces of Nature in your reading and in your homework from our last meeting, you learned that those amount to spiral-of-death stimulations. The reason for that is we're no longer an animal of nature. On the other hand, Forces of Neothink® amount to super-society stimulations. We are now conscious man and should be living in a limitless super society.

Super-society stimulations out simulate spiral of death stimulations. You read in Visions Three and Four the irresistible attraction to Forces of Nature. But those are spiral of death stimulations because they come from nature and we leapt beyond nature 2000 to 3000 years ago. For example, to spread one's genes by mating randomly and recklessly is poisonous to a Neothink® romantic love relationship. We are no longer animals of nature.

When man's nature-created bicameral mind broke down 2000 to 3000 years ago, mankind leapt into a new man-made mind space known as human consciousness. Once we properly market and format super-society stimulations, they will out stimulate the under evolved, spiral-of-death stimulations of the anticivilization.

No one has ever explicitly formatted and marketed super-society stimulations because no one before Neothink® could understand and decipher such a thing without knowing about our next mentality, our next evolution into the mysticism-free God-Man. We are the first. You're going to ultimately format and market super-society stimulations which have never been done and therefore has huge potential.

Remember, the child of the past, the infant Zon, is inside everyone. It's the largest common denominator yet it's the toughest to tap. In your last meeting you learned the three-piece Neothink® marketing secret – the common denominator format, the Forces of Nature impulses, the Forces of Neothink® residuals. Now, I'm going to mentor you how to kick off what will ultimately become the greatest marketing dynamic for mankind delivering the greatest product for mankind...Neothink®.

First, let us talk about, “honor and glory at all costs” which is actually a powerful Force of Nature. Remember, in your last meeting we called the maximum and fastest prosperity, power, popularity, prestige for the least amount of energy spent “honor and glory at all costs”. We first see this phenomenon in Ulysses from Homer's Iliad. There's no regard for honesty, no regard to earned prosperity, power, popularity, prestige. “Honor and glory at all costs” means taking, pillaging, and plundering by force for instant gratification. That Force of Nature, “honor and glory at all costs”, drives the anticivilization. It drove ancient Ulysses and it drives many of our leaders today, especially our political leaders.

One way or another, most everyone is trapped in the spiral-of-death Forces of Nature, either seeking “honor and glory at any cost” or accepting and following those who are. A few climb to the top often through deception, force and fraud. Many more “succeed” off of the shoulders who those on top walk on.

That Homeric anticivilization lead by the plundering and pillaging Ulysses can be out stimulated by us, by those who understand the C of U and who can therefore skillfully offer super-society stimulations.

Indeed, Neothink® offers each person the opportunity to become his own Ulysses but minus the dishonesty. Now, think about that: Become your own Ulysses, become that meaningful, that eternally meaningful, important person. It’s a large, impulsive common denominator but by adding in there the missing ingredient of honesty. Taking away the dishonesty beckons the underlying Forces of Neothink, that child of the past, the largest common denominator.

Everyone in his or her own way wants to be a Ulysses; a person leading a meaningful and important life and looked upon with respect and reverence. However, most good people don’t have access to or desire for a dishonest destructive, quick path to the top.

Before I go on though, I must inject here that there are C of U leaders in this anticivilization who got there through honest wealth, power, and prestige by creating values for society. Now, everyone’s deepest dream, most deep-rooted desire is to lead a meaningful and important life. They want to be meaningful; they want to do something important and valuable with their lives. If any person, any ordinary working man or woman, any retiree or housewife could live that meaningful and important life, become a Ulysses minus the dishonesty in his or her own way, that would out-stimulate whatever he or she experiences now. Stimulation guides our choices and now we can out-stimulate the anticivilization. Imagine this, having your shoulders walked on versus rising up yourself, never to be walked on again.

In short, my friends, out-stimulating the forces-of-nature stimulations of the anticivilization is the theme for the political movement, for the network marketing opportunity and for the Society of Secrets formal structure. That will be Parts One, Two and Three of today's meeting. In our C of U dynamic of value creation, everyone can contribute to society, be a self-leader, a God-Man and rise without stepping on others' shoulders. Instead, you will reach down and pull up your fellow man as I'm doing with you. You will reach down and pull up those you bring into your Clubhouse. Yes, now everyone can be a Ulysses minus the dishonesty.

The brand new Neothink® World paradigm of value creators allows the C of U phenomenon which is so much better than the way it has always been. More and more people will make the leap into the next mentality of self-leading value creation as they leave behind the current mentality of following mode value production.

If you can deliver the greatest message anyone wants to hear, you will succeed. The message: You can live the Ulysses life. A stimulating and exhilarating life-long journey filled with honor and glory, meaning and importance while always helping others. That message is filled with forces-of-nature impulses and laced with Forces of Neothink® residuals. That message, the message, is going to be your key to going public.

In the anticivilization of bicameral-like mentalities, the marketing message must come with forces-of-nature impulses and forces-of-Neothink® residuals which we learned about in our last meeting. You must also format those two huge common denominators. Now, let's explore how you will 1) push those forces-of-nature impulses, 2) plant those forces-of-Neothink® residuals and 3) format those huge common denominators.

Secret Teachings to My Exclusive Inner Circle

In Parts One, Two and Three of this essence meeting, I'll dig into the marketing of the Forces of Nature and Forces of Neothink®. Right now though, I want to introduce you to how to format those common denominators. Using a little power thinking here, let's start with the end accomplishment, formatting those huge common denominators, that is, formatting people looking for forces-of-nature stimulations and people looking for forces-of-Neothink® stimulations.

So, how do we format those huge common denominators? Prior to this group of apprentices, The Neothink® Society was a loosely knit secret society that very rarely congregated. Even then, the congregation was very selectively chosen, limited to a couple of hundred hand-selected members only. You are the first Neothink® generation where we allow you to network and meet one another and to congregate. There's something huge about that, which you can't fully appreciate yet. For two generations, we've patiently laid the enormous ground work necessary prior to this day, the day when we would allow Neothink® members to congregate and bring in people from the general public without our very involved, very expensive, purposefully limiting, filtering process allowing only a select few, whose child of the past was still searching for the C of U.

But now you can bring anyone to the Introduction Meetings at your Clubhouse. The Neothink® Society is being allowed to grow, no longer growth-restricted as in its past. You can bring in anyone, family, friends and beyond. Before it was only limited to your children and spouse.

We'll stay close to our roots for now and still maintain an inside society status not a secret society status but still an inside society status. We're no longer a secret society but we are a society of secrets.

We'll have people, non-profiled people, come into our society of secrets. We'll let The Neothink® Society grow larger and larger causing the Business Alliance Dynamics you read about in the Miss Annabelle's Story. If the general public wants these secrets and competitive advantages — life advantages — they have to come in here to get it. Instead of saturating the public by putting our knowledge out there through selling it, we'll build mystery and momentum by exposing our secret knowledge only to those who come inside; by inviting people into The Neothink® Society. A point will come when to remain competitive to get the Neothink® advantages that others now possess, people will be motivated to come to us in large numbers to get in to The Neothink® Society and get our competitive advantages that will help them discover the life they were meant to live.

And now we're formatting this approach through the power of your meetings. The three initial meeting structures will be the Introduction Meetings which we'll cover Part One, the Clubhouse Meetings for the members once they join which we will cover in Part Three of this meeting and the political meetings. People who are motivated and inclined to change society we live in will be drawn to these political meetings.

So, we have Introduction Meetings; Clubhouse Meetings; Political Party Meetings. In all three meetings there is a general recognition or sense that things are not right with the world and that there could and should be something more in our personal lives. In these meetings, we seek to uncover the creative, wealthy, happy person we were meant to be in the safe, prosperous, free society in which we were supposed to live. This sense that The Neothink® Society will improve the world we live in and improve our personal lives establishes huge common denominators. Improving the world around you draws one into the political meetings. Improving the person inside you draws you into the Clubhouse meetings. In both cases, to become a member of The Neothink® Society to improve the person inside you or to improve the society around you, draws you to the Introduction Meetings.

Secret Teachings to My Exclusive Inner Circle

Okay, we have learned that meetings are the powerful common denominator format for you to take Neothink® to the public. Let's move on now to Part One which will bring you to the Introduction meetings which for many of you will become your Friday-Night Essence.

Level-Four Essence Meeting

Part One

So many of you have written to ask me if you can tell your friends about Neothink®, that you want to spread Neothink®. After all, you spent your life searching for that something more the child of the past within you kept alive even in this anticivilization. So this will be a natural Friday-Night Essence for many of you; bringing people in and spreading Neothink®; introducing Neothink® to others and thus bringing to them that C of U dynamic that we have here in The Neothink® Society. And, as you bring people in, they will join the Clubhouse meetings which is where the C of U on planet earth begins.

Now, your first three Level Essence Meetings with me were crucial preparation for this. Introducing the general public to Neothink® will become for many of you your Friday-Night Essence and a place in history. And, you're going to play doing this. This will truly be the way you feel the sensation I talked about in the first meeting; playing at life. When you are creating values, you, as an adult, are playing and this will be the opportunity for so many of you to create values and to play at life.

You'll be able to use numbers to make Ten-Second Miracles doing this, bringing people in, changing the anticivilization to the C of U. You'll be able to apply the Neothink Marketing Secret, all three pieces, to become more and more effective, have more and more fun, achieve more and more success and make more and more money.

We'll get into the marketing approach as we go through Part One. Now, let me get into this opportunity for you. This is a Network Marketing Program with you at the ground floor. That is huge. I've had world marketing experts asking me to let them release this to their own teams to take Neothink® public. The country's top marketing experts wanted this

Neothink® Network Marketing Opportunity first and they've wanted this for twenty years. I've repeatedly said no and turned down a billion dollars to let my hand-picked apprentices, my loyal readers, have this first.

To take advantage of this tremendous opportunity that I saved just for my apprentices and loyal readers, you will assume a mentoring position to the flock of newbie's coming in. That puts enormous responsibility on you. I put enormous trust in you. This is the movement to change the world. This is so big — too big for many to grasp — but it is happening. This is not a sudden, fly-by-night fad. This has been meticulously, patiently evolving for generations. You are in the right place at the right time. You, as Jake was in the Miss Annabelle's Story, you are thrust right in the middle of the Neothink® movement.

We searched years to find you. You are the chosen ones to bring the Neothink® Network Marketing Opportunity to the public, the political movement to the public and the Clubhouses to the public and you will help mentor all the newcomers.

So, let's look more closely at the Neothink® Network Marketing Opportunity. Recall we said the Introduction Meetings are formatted to introduce potential members to The Neothink® Society. Your Introduction Meetings will:

- 1) inspire the visitors to join the only path to a stimulated, exhilarated life which they were meant to live and
- 2) inspire the visitors to sell the only product that everyone eventually needs.

Think about that; marketing a product that everyone eventually needs. When you bring someone into The Neothink® Society, they come back and profusely thank you just as we all feel so thankful to be part of the Neothink® family. And that knowledge gives you confidence. It's a confidence builder in your marketing effort.

Let's look closely at the contents of your Introduction Meeting: "selling" the value The Neothink® Society. The reason the Introduction Meeting is your format is teamwork. There's something powerful about having a team of people presenting values, presenting their own experiences, the values they've reaped from being a member of The Neothink® Society. You need a congregation of people to witness with your own eyes how Neothink® is a universal value. And I recommend that during the Introduction Meeting some designated speaker stands up and gives his or her own personal testimonial. Such a personal testimonial shows your visitors the exhilarating life that awaits them. You'll talk about things such as discovering your Friday-Night Essence, and reaping the rewards from Neothink® by having help from advanced Neothink® mentors. You will tell them how you discovered playing as an adult and Ten-Second Miracles. You will teach them how to market Neothink® and they will be surrounded by people who feel like family and who will be an enormous support in your new life journey. Here in The Neothink® Society they will learn secret knowledge, secrets that work and a way of life that leads to really good things. And, you will want to tell them about the Heirloom Packages and what they've meant to you and what they will get out of those.

Remember, we are requiring them to come in to The Neothink® Society. We are not putting our material out there for them to get their hands on. You are selling a new life. You're selling them the life that they were born to live but are missing out on. You are, in a non-religious sense, their savior, as I was yours. You're turning them onto a very stimulating, excitement-filled and love-filled journey to a new life. You're showing them how to become a Ulysses without the dishonesty. You are showing them a new way of thinking called Neothink®. Again, you will be there to help them with that and they will receive information through the Heirloom Packages and through the meetings with Mark Hamilton, with myself, as their mentor.

You'll talk about the love and the affinity that you've had with your family, your Neothink® family. Your sense of belonging here, you'll talk about the security, how we help each other and you'll talk about the life advantages that you gain in The Neothink® Society, about your friends for life, about the romantic possibilities, about the web site which brings them a national networking capacity with the chat room and discussion boards. Of course there is the Business Alliance that opens up a multitude of business opportunities for them.

You'll talk to them about the strength of the secrets in their Heirlooms that expand and escalate with the monthly Essence Meetings with Mark Hamilton combined with the live meetings at their local Clubhouses.

You can talk about becoming part of a rare watershed event in history that is changing the world and about what a feeling that brings to you, knowing you are part of that.

Of course, you can talk about the social gatherings and events as well as the specialized, exciting meetings that they may be interested in such as the new political party dynamic, the Neothink® music and bands, live arts, film projects, business opportunities in the U.S. and overseas.

Keep in mind, we are all one team in the sense that we are one unit working on the superpuzzle to bring Neothink® public. We're one unit but we're broken into essentially these different mini-companies all across the country. Therefore, Clubhouses need to communicate to each other through the secret web site. You need to share what is working, what's not working which will bring strength to the other Clubhouses. Remember, this is a superpuzzle, the same superpuzzle that we saw in the Miss

Annabelle's Story. And, as in Miss Annabelle, you must keep in mind the importance of what we are doing here and thus always want to help others who are part of that superpuzzle. We are changing the world and our secret web site will act as our communicator.

Now in the second part of your Introduction Meeting you will show your visitors the rare financial opportunity for those interested in making money. You'll explain that this is just beginning and, as I said earlier, is an opportunity that world-class marketers have been trying to get from me for twenty years. I repeatedly turned down those offers. I turned them down and, at the same time, turned down a lot of money. But I always kept in mind the superpuzzle and what really Neothink® is going to achieve; the goal is biological immortality. And, taking Neothink® public through you apprentices is part of that superpuzzle.

So, this is just the beginning, it's that head of steam that has been building pressure for generations. So you can communicate to your guests that they are getting in early on this.

Neothink® is the only product that could eventually reach everyone because it's bringing people the exhilarating and adventurous life they were meant to live. More and more people will need The Neothink® Society to stay competitive as we grow. It's those Business Alliance dynamics that are described in the Miss Annabelle's Story. When you understand all this you realize that the Neothink® Network Marketing Opportunity will go for a long, long time and penetrate civilization deeply. The money making potential here is huge for those getting in now. And, our format makes it easy. You just bring people to the Introduction Meetings and membership will basically sell itself. You will develop skill and technique that's going to serve you well on your marketing venture.

Remember, you can't escape the fact that we have the universal product that everyone needs and as The Neothink® Society grows the pressure on those who don't have these advantages is going to grow as well. This will give you confidence. Remember that those you bring in are going to come back to you and thank you over and over again for saving them from stagnation and boredom. And, many of them will also make a lot of money through the network marketing.

To summarize these Introduction Meetings; you'll have two parts, the value and the opportunity. The value you are demonstrating and offering your visitors is the Ulysses life minus the dishonesty...the life they were all meant to live. Only here can they become the person they were meant to be. They will discover and actualize their passion. For their monthly membership fee they will have access to the world's most highly-guarded secrets, visions and powers. They will become the person they were meant to be while taking their monthly course, their monthly Essence Meetings with me, Mark Hamilton for the first twelve months. They will enjoy the web site with the national discussion boards, chat rooms, chat sessions, help from others, questions, answers. They'll enjoy local meetings monthly at the Clubhouses, with people from whom they receive intellectual stimulation, friendships, business opportunities, and perhaps even romantic relationships. They're welcome to any meeting around the country at any Clubhouse and they will have access to specialized meetings and projects such as the political meetings, medical meetings, business meetings and opportunities.

The second part of the Introduction Meeting will consist of the opportunity. The Neothink® Network Marketing Opportunity has got to be one of the greatest network marketing opportunities of all time. Why do I say the greatest marketing opportunity? Because everyone wants and needs these highly-guarded secrets. Everyone wants and needs to become the person he or she was meant to be. Everyone wants or needs an environment of friends who will benefit and lift their lives because everyone wants and needs what The Neothink® Society has to offer.

The Neothink® Network Marketing Opportunity will go longer than anything out there. A lot of people will join The Neothink® Society for the value and a lot will join for the money-making opportunity. A lot will join for both the value and the opportunity.

All your life you have searched for the C of U without realizing that's what you were doing. You are all searchers. You did not resign to the anticivilization. You are looking for something more out of life. And therefore, that persistency that non-acceptance of the anticivilization, is going to make you the natural salesman for Neothink®, the natural messenger for the C of U. And, as you become comfortable with this role, it will expand within you and become your Friday- Night Essence. I don't see that there will be any stopping you.

Now selling will be new to a lot of you and takes some getting used to, however, what I would suggest is for you to get together with your apprentice teams or A-Teams and start forming the elements to the Introduction Meetings. Assign people or choose people who are going to stand up and give an account of their life, their experience, their search and what they found in Neothink®. Keep in mind all of the marketing elements we've discussed; the Forces of Nature and the Forces of Neothink. Forces of Nature are reflected in people looking for wealth, romance, health, and happiness. The Forces of Neothink are reflected in people looking for that meaningful and important life that the child of the past once sought. You can bring those together during your deliveries. Also, remember the analogy to Ulysses minus dishonesty; an action-filled, meaningful and important life...the life worth living, the life full of adventure, a journey. When one comes into The Neothink® Society he or she begins a journey, a life-long journey, of action, adventure, excitement, growth, romance. This Society has secret knowledge that will make you a wealthier person financially and personally. Your personal stories about those values are what will sell people on The Neothink® Society.

If you're not used to selling, I believe very soon you will be filled with motivation, a deep-rooted motivation as these Introduction Meetings become your Friday-Night Essence. It will go from, initially perhaps, some anxiety and maybe not feeling quite secure with your delivery to an exciting and exhilarating experience as you feel your value that you are bringing to the world; as you introduce people into the life they were meant to live.

Now, you see why I say it's very important for you to get the Neothink® Clubhouses going strong. We are going to talk about that in Part Three of this Level Four meeting. It behooves you marketers to get the Neothink® Clubhouses going strong in your areas for those are going to be perhaps the greatest reason for people to continue paying their membership fee monthly.

To be clear, the Clubhouse doesn't necessarily mean a specific place. The Clubhouse is the actual monthly meeting. It could be at a restaurant, it could be at somebody's home, it could be anywhere, it's the meeting itself. After your new members have been exposed to and absorb all the literature, then those fulfilling local meetings, the Clubhouses, will sustain their ongoing membership for life. We'll talk more about this, as I said, in Part Three of this meeting.

I want to make one more important point about these Introduction Meetings and that is your Introduction Meeting's designated speaker or speakers who stand up and give a personal account of his or her own life and journey with

Neothink®. This is where both the Forces of Nature and Forces of Neothink can play a powerful role. Here's how:

In the Introduction of this meeting, I told you that everyone down deep wants an important and meaningful life of lasting significance. The Forces of Nature bring us Ulysses. The Forces of Neothink bring us God-Man which is a Ulysses life minus dishonesty. You will not use the term God-Man in your speech. You will instead use the expression, "the person you were meant to be". In short, someone in your A-Team will give the personal account of his or her own life. How it transformed from a boring and stagnant life into an exhilarating adventure full of action, meaning, friends, money, love. That personal story will have an enormous impact and go a long way in convincing visitors to join because that personal story touches the child of the past within all of us. Deep down, everyone wants the exhilarating eternally important life, the romantic life of Ulysses minus the dishonesty. The important exhilarating romantic life you were meant to live.

Now during the second part, the money-making opportunity part of your Introduction Meeting, you'll express that unlike other network marketing products Neothink® is universal, everyone wants and needs Neothink® for the exhilarating, adventurous, meaningful and romantic life we were meant to live. All that can be found in The Neothink® Society.

As you bring people in, in essence, you become their personal mentor. You will help and answer their questions and before long you become a mentor to many as I am. Let me tell you from my heart, it is very rewarding.

Upon bringing people into this society of secrets, The Neothink® Society, you'll want to explain that they will receive our most highly-guarded inside secrets. You want to explain to them that they will come to their first local Clubhouse meeting on such and such a day and place that you establish. You want to tell these new members that they will have immediate access to the web site that will put them immediately in the middle of thousands of members for questions, guidance, chats, discussion boards and access to any Clubhouse meeting anywhere in your state, nation or the world. You'll want to let your new members know that they'll begin their one-year journey with their Senior Mentor, Mark Hamilton, that will change any ordinary person over the course of that year into the person he or she was meant to be, living the life he or she was meant to live.

Tell your new members they will have access to you and other local members for mentoring and let them know that they will discover a rewarding social network in their local Clubhouse. And let's see what happens when a new member gets into The Neothink® Society..

They will also have access to the political meetings or any other specialized meetings. Say there are meetings about business projects, medical meetings on medical longevity or live arts. They'll have access to all of those meetings, too.

I advise you to approach first your family and good friends. Get comfortable with the process, bring them in. Remember, they will thank you later for bringing them into this more exhilarating, exciting life. Then, as you get comfortable and feel good about doing this, then bring in the public. You can advertise in any way you wish to bring people to your Introduction Meetings but you can't use our copyrighted material. The only potential exception to that is if you present me with a specific package and plan and get my signature of approval.

So, get together with your apprentice teams and you should start preparing your Introduction Meetings. Get together and discuss how you're going to hold your Introduction Meetings. The Introduction Meetings, when developed and done well will sell the membership on their own and then all you need to do is go out and bring people in.

Forbidden Revelation

Start with your family and friends and then branch out to the general public. You may use any form of advertising as I had said before. You may post bulletins on telephone poles or around town. You can advertise on your television, radio stations, send flyers through the mail. Whatever you learn works to bring people in to your Introduction Meetings and well done Introduction Meetings will sell the memberships.

So, that is your starting point. You want to form your Clubhouses. You want to make a conscious effort to work together to make it the most exhilarating, exciting two-part meeting that the public, your visitors, have ever experienced. You want to sell the values. Sit down with your fellow apprentices, enumerate the values, be sure those are well expressed in your meetings. You want to determine who's going to talk, who's going to talk about themselves. You may want to split that responsibility around, rotate those speakers.

Down deep, you all share the same goal, the same Friday-Night Essence, that same search for that C of U. And, you can work together as teams, teams to bring people in, into the Clubhouse, which we'll talk about in Part Three. This is different, of course, from the way you came in to The Neothink® Society. You were selected through our highly-restrictive profiling methods and you were selected for the purpose of being who you are and where you are right now and being our chosen ones, so to speak to bring Neothink® public.

Remember, the secret web site is www.activeneothinkmember.com. This site is going to become more and more important to us as we bring Neothink® to the public. It's going to become our communicator. We are going to be able to help each other through the web site. We will be able to share with other Clubhouses across the country what is working, why it is working, what you're doing, how you are progressing. The web site is going to become valuable to us to learn from each other. Remember, bringing Neothink® public is all new; it's cutting edge. You are in the first phase of this development which brings you the greatest profit potential in the end.

After two generations of keeping the Society secret and internal, I am very excited to see this next step unfold of taking Neothink® out there to others, to the public. And I must say here, my apprentices, I am excited for you. This could be truly your Friday-Night Essence. And, with some experience, this could be a way for you to make a lot of money. I really do believe in you, my apprentices.

Now that we have gone through the mechanism to take Neothink® to the public through this great marketing opportunity for you, let's move on to Part Two of the meeting where we're going to see how to bring Neothink® to the public through a political movement.

Level-Four Essence Meeting

Part Two

Let's move into our political party name, party platform and party campaign strategy.

The name — how do you choose a name? Well it's very, very tricky because you can get too specific or too broad. The time in history plays a role, too. I could spend today's entire lesson on this one subject on how to choose a name. Famous marketers have written about this since the beginning of marketing itself. Even billion dollar Fortune 500 companies get this wrong more times than they'll admit.

I want to say I appreciate the dozens of political party names submitted by you apprentices. As one apprentice suggested, I appreciated seeing your integrations. However, the party name we will go with is The Twelve Visions Party. There is so much reasoning behind the selection of that party name. Let me just say we understand that marketing can propel something to success. The key here is not just what is being said but also how it is being said. In both cases, this is where my skills come in. I'll provide you, sometime between now and the next meeting, with the fundamental, non-amendable portion to the party's Constitution and I'll provide the National Platform. You need this before registering the Twelve Visions Party with your Secretary of State.

I must ask you to exercise patience for beyond the enormous deep thinking that goes into this comes many long meetings among different lawyers to work through the legal and intellectual property issues. The Twelve Visions, of course, tie back to the Twelve Visions in the Heirloom Packages.

By the way, I'll take the Twelve Visions in the Heirlooms and rework them for the public move, for bookstores, once the political party gets traction.

Secret Teachings to My Exclusive Inner Circle

Let's talk about the National Platform. The National Platform will reveal our plan to de-politicize America, but without ever using those words. When we understand that our success depends on not just what we say but how we say it, you realize we're talking about marketing, stimulation. We must do something unique to have our platform stimulate the masses. I'll provide you with that unique National Platform before the next meeting. As you'll see, I explain that the problem with political platforms is that one cannot reach ahead far enough to see the outcome. They all sound great but people need to see into the future to what kind of world those platforms create.

I go into the new concept of Neothink® and what that is. About bringing in knowledge like puzzle pieces and snapping those together into a puzzle and as that puzzle comes together and forms we can see what the puzzle picture is going to look like even before all the pieces are there, which is, in essence, seeing the future. That's what the Twelve Visions are. They are Twelve Neothink® Visions that are showing us the future.

The platform needs to be unconventional Neothink® visions and be stimulating. I want you to read Visions Ten, Eleven and the first portion of Vision Twelve in your Heirlooms. I'm editing those into our National Platform, a stimulation-based platform with all the planks snapping into those Neothink® Visions. Unconventional, yes but very effective.

Read Visions Ten, Eleven and the first portion of Twelve. You'll see how those Neothink visions will stimulate the masses. I'll give you a little insight into how effective this stimulating approach can be.

Back in 1992, I put feelers out for a Mark Hamilton for President Run. For that I wrote a book that was my manifesto called "A Future of Wealth Belongs to You". Back then I was beginning to grasp the stimulation based approach. I had a successful infomercial running on television that gave away my book for free. I had just started when Perot made his announcement on Larry King.

Well, the Perot campaign and my campaign had several parallels so I sent Perot my manifesto. A few days later I got a call from his Campaign Manager and she and I talked for awhile on the phone. She was very impressed with what she had read and there were particular expressions that caught her eye such as Career Politician and my expressions on how market businessmen will come in and replace the career politicians. She then asked me if I would mind if the Perot campaign used some expressions from my manifesto and I gave her my blessing. And, at that point, I stopped my exploratory committee for president and watched what happened with the Perot campaign.

Well, this added dimension to Perot's '92 campaign, for he implicitly emphasized moving competent business dynamics into the incompetent arena of politics. The people loved it. Perot's campaign became largely a stimulation-based campaign. As effective as those campaign gems I turned over the Perot campaign were, my advisors and I know much more now than we knew then.

Stimulation is the key. For example, our slogan is: The Twelve Visions Party is the Party That Will Make the People Rich – Make the Poor Rich". How? Through super-rapidly advancing new technology. Super rapidly advancing new technology always leads to cost dropping to fractions.

For example, consider the computers, the information revolution and the communication revolution. That's what the Twelve Visions Party is all about. The Twelve Visions Party represents a new political paradigm which set the conditions that allow technology to race forward unencumbered, with a purpose of making the ordinary person, even the poor person, live with a rich standard of living.

Secret Teachings to My Exclusive Inner Circle

Everyone knows there is far too much bureaucratic red tape, regulations, bad law, and destructive litigation. The Twelve Visions Party dedicates itself to that problem. The more you learn about the Twelve Visions Party the more you discover how it truly is the Party that will bring the average citizen, even the poor citizen, remarkable wealth, health and safety, unlike any time before. It's what everyone wants except those in power for they're going to lose much of their power.

Understand that everyone wants the Neothink® World, even poor welfare dependents. They just may not know it yet.

So let's walk through what you need to get started in your state:

Well, you need a party name. We have that now, The Twelve Visions Party. You need a Constitution and Bylaws and you need a platform. You're waiting for me on the non-amendable, fundamental portion of the Constitution and you're waiting for me to get to you the Party Platform.

Now, you should be looking at some political party's constitution and bylaws. Look at those in your state and look at some around the country to get a feel for what you'll need to establish around my fundamental, non-amendable portion of the Constitution.

You need to establish when conventions are held. You need to have a method for electing members or assign members. You can start working on that, getting together to assign or select different temporary members. Get organized. In fact, in some states you can even begin, prior to getting registered with the Secretary of State, getting signatures. You will then take the completed constitution, the platform, the bylaws and your list of temporary members and you will then submit that to the Secretary of State and you should be then a registered party.

Then the next step is getting qualified to be on the ballot. You'll need to begin serious organizing, petitioning, getting people to run for office on the ballot. People who pledge to uphold the Party's Constitution or lose their Party status. Once you get to this point, then campaigning begins and your campaign will have a slogan that is shown and seen everywhere. And, you'll want to announce this to the media. Think about it, think about it. The Twelve Visions Party is the Make the Poor Rich Party. The media would not be able to resist that. It's a new political paradigm that makes the ordinary citizen, including the poor citizen wealthy, healthy and safe.

Now, the campaign dynamic is stimulation based. It's based on Forces of Nature AND Forces of Neothink®. What are the Forces of Nature in this campaign? Think about it. It's wealth without lifting a finger. You know the old Force of Nature to get the most out of the least energy spent. Well, we're telling people that we get the Twelve Visions Party in and technology will be unencumbered, will race forward like the computers did at the end of the last century and your buying power will multiply, a hundred, a thousand times. Wow, living like a millionaire without lifting a finger. That's a Force of Nature.

Tell people how this rapidly advancing new technology will lead to rapid health advancements, disease cures, rapidly falling prices in the health industry, in the medical industry and you will attract the elderly. In the end, you're going to live younger much longer.

These are all Forces of Nature. All of you have read the Heirlooms know the Twelve Visions and understand that the nature of this political party is reducing down to a protection-only government.

Now, realize this is how I explain our Party to you because I am educating you. But we will not talk to the public like this. I know from experience that we do not want to educate the public. We can leave that up to the Libertarians but they will never get anywhere. We must stimulate. We don't want to slip into educating. We want to stay clear of that. When you try to educate such as the Libertarians do, people's eyes glaze over. In a campaign you can't tell people how great business is and how bad government is. That's like trying to talk C of U to an anticivilization bicameral like person.

Instead you go to WHS — Wealth, Health and Safety. That's stimulation based. You don't even have to get into the complicated concepts of freedom or right versus wrong, or left versus right. Just get the citizens listening to wealth, health, safety...the Forces of Nature.

All right now, you know last month we talked about the Forces of Neothink® and I explained to you how that is the largest common denominator, the child of the past, inside everyone that has resigned to the anticivilization. How are we going to reach that child of the past in a campaign to the masses? We do that through expressing how, sort of like we have talked, ourselves. How you are going to discover a new person you didn't know could exist within you. That person is the person you were meant to be. When The Twelve Visions Party comes in and technology soars, your standard of living skyrockets, your health improves, your longevity improves, your safety improves, all of this without you lifting a finger by the way, without risking a thing. You express how you're going to go through a personal renaissance and you will meet that person you were meant to be and live that life you were meant to live. You will be waking up the child of the past in the masses.

You can also express how their job is a stagnant rut most people have to experience because of the division of labor today. You can express how the leaders of business for the most part suppress you — the great suppression — because of our politicized society and how all that will change when the regulations are lifted and technology is free to soar. We can start talking about these entrepreneurial jobs of the mind, the division of essence and playing at work as an adult.

But remember, as you express yourself, always keep at the forefront of your mind that we don't want to get too deep. We want to stay on the surface in almost a slogan realm.

Suppose the media begins to dig deeper during our campaign and you're asked how do you propose removing the red tape and regulations, bad law and destructive litigation and how will you free up super rapidly advancing new technology? Well, we'll give the basic answer that we will depoliticize America. And we will mention the Protection Only budget naturally and we will mention to secure Protection Only we will introduce the Party Constitution as an amendment to the U.S. Constitution. But then we will say, to get the details you need to study Mark Hamilton's Heirloom Packages, specifically the Twelve Visions. You can direct the media to the Miss Annabelle's Secrets. We have the details. They are in the Heirlooms.

Now we're going to market this. We're going to appeal to the Forces of Nature, wealth without lifting a finger, health without lifting a finger, safety without risking a thing and we're going to appeal to the Forces of Neothink®. Discovering the person you were meant to be in this Neothink® World, this new technology world, living the life you were meant to live. It's the key point here and I'm going to say it over and over again. You do not ever want to get into educating or trying to teach the C of U to the bicameral-like anticivilization whether that's the media or individuals or crowds.

You just need to perfect short, brief slogan-like statements about wealth, health and safety and about the life you were meant to live. That is how we will successfully run a stimulation-based campaign not an education-based campaign. Always refer the deeper details to Mark Hamilton's books. The key here is to avoid getting into educating. Just keep stimulating, not educating. Those who want deeper education can buy the books but the public does not want deeper education, they just want stimulation. I cannot say this enough, a successful campaign must be stimulation based, not education based.

Now let's say a Neothink® candidate is in a debate and the line of questioning forces him into some of the details about depoliticizing America, perhaps about the Protection Only Budget removing all elements of initiatory force including bad regulations, bad law and litigation. What does he or she do at this point? Always end with stimulation. We need to remove initiatory force, bad law, bad regulations, litigations to free technology and bring us rising standards of living, wealth, health, protection and safety to all our people including the poor. I want you to think, after today's meeting, think about this for a bit, how sweeping this approach is.

If someone were to just go in and read the literature, they could come out and say, oh, you're just for the rich guy, for the business owner. You just want to get the government off their back. But we're pulling in everybody. We're pulling in the welfare dependent with this type of stimulation-based campaign. We're pulling in the socialist left media, we're pulling in the Oprah Winfrey's, we're pulling in everybody with this campaign because its stimulation based. And that's exactly why this Twelve Visions Party is universal; everyone benefits and we can keep it on track by staying focused on the Forces of Nature, wealth without lifting a finger, health without lifting a finger, longevity, safety and Forces of Neothink®. Things will change and you will live a new life, a fulfilling life, a romantic life, a wealthy life.

Right now, state-by-state organizing needs to occur. You need to meet with your A-Teams to understand what needs to be done and then do it. I encourage people running for local office under the Twelve Visions Party all the way up to eventually getting the Twelve Visions Party on the Presidential Ballot. You need to set up A-Teams in your state geographically throughout your state. This has to be organized by you, my apprentices, for it is a grassroots movement.

Also, study other political party's Constitutions and Bylaws on the Internet. For you'll be forming that yourselves once you get my portion of your Constitution and once you get the National Platform from me. Be sure to wait for my portion of the Constitution and my National Platform before registering the Twelve Visions Party with your Secretary of State.

Also, I want to remind you that in some states you can start accumulating signatures even before registering the political party.

You do have a lot to do and I do believe in you.

Level-Four Essence Meeting

Part Three

Going public goes beyond the Neothink® Network Marketing Opportunity and the TVP political movement. It means establishing a formal structure by which The Neothink® Society can root and grow. This will begin the C of U on earth. Ultimately the C of U will grow as people leave the anticivilization and choose to enter the C of U, the Neothink® Society.

Consider that becoming organized is perhaps the most powerful force in the cosmos such as The Big Bang through immeasurable organization of all matter in the Universe. Let's look at this powerful force here on earth:

Consider the powered explosion when random occurrences become a tightly organized force. Consider wind, for instance, as random occurrences you merely have breezes. As a tightly organized force, you have a hurricane or tornado. That explosion of wind power can be compared to the explosion of Neothink® power, when you organize random Neothink® people into a tightly organized structure of Clubhouses.

In other words, before, you could easily go through your entire life and never meet another Neothink® person interested in you or in the things you feel are important.

In an organized Neothink® Society, however, you'll walk into a hurricane of people not only interested in you and what you feel is important but people like you actualizing those important challenges.

Once organized into the formal structure, you'll immediately feel their force swirling around you when you're there in the meetings. You could even find yourself swept up by a tornado of individuals interested in you and in your value creation. I know this will happen by organizing into these monthly meetings. In the organized Neothink® Society, organized into local Clubhouses with a national web site, there will exist a hurricane, a power explosion of value exchange. In the end, our Neothink® Society and the opportunities within will be unstoppable.

Forbidden Revelation

Before now, you were lone, random Neothink® people. Now you're becoming organized and will grow into a hurricane force. In the Clubhouses, you experience growing business alliance dynamics, growing acceptance and love, growing numbers of friends, lifelong friends. Perhaps even romance, and perhaps even a spouse, if you're single.

In the Clubhouses, you'll feel growing support from others, where Neothink® ideas and C of U ideas are the norm. Creation of values becomes natural here. You're inside an environment for winners. Your children will meet other Neothink® children. Things such as political movements, Neo-Tech Schools, they'll all originate here. Indeed, the organized Neothink® Society is the microcosm of the C of U on earth. Your quality of life rises.

If one is not interested in the Neothink® Network Marketing Opportunity or the TVP political movement, The Neothink® Clubhouses bring you a new society on earth of Neothink® people like you. A lot of people will join for this value alone.

Through the marketing Neothink® through the Clubhouses our Neothink® Society will grow into a small civilization. The advantages will add up and draw in more and more people to our little civilization. The Neothink® Clubhouses are the beginnings of the Civilization of the Universe on earth. In the end the C of U will grow and out-stimulate and out-compete the anticivilization.

To start these monthly meetings, your Clubhouses, the A-Teams need to come together and give shape and form to these meetings. You must give feedback to all. We'll set up a place on the secret web site dedicated to this sort of communication and feedback. From your feedback, we'll gradually evolve and formalize the structure.

Your Clubhouse, by the way, is your monthly meeting itself, not the "building" in which you have your meeting. And your Clubhouse will keep your local members in the society for a long time, perhaps for life.

Those moving on the Neothink® Network Marketing Opportunity revealed in Part One must take charge in starting the Clubhouses to secure their monthly income. The Introduction Meetings and the Clubhouses are pieces to the same puzzle. These local Clubhouse meetings will become a vital part of the monthly membership fee, for the Clubhouse is the place of congregation. People need to congregate, to socialize, talk, plan things. They can have specialized meetings such as the political movement, Paradise City, the business alliance, health and fitness, medical. From these meetings, members find a place they belong to. They find opportunity, they find new ideas and directions and adventures. They find fun, they find love, they find the life of Ulysses minus dishonesty. The superpuzzle for Biological Immortality eventually comes through creating this formal structure where ideas and opportunities and movements grow from.

This formal structure, the Clubhouses, is the foundation for the superpuzzle. The first piece to the puzzle has begun with the Twelve Visions Party. I'm impressing on you that the public movement is much more than the marketing opportunity itself. We are, for the first time ever, establishing the beginnings of an organized, formalized structure for Neothink® to grow and to bring in the general population. The outcome of this will be deeply moving on both a personal level and a societal level.

On the personal level, the friendships and the love will be fulfilling that "something more to life" you always searched for but never found. Yet there's something even deeper; the spontaneous generation of your creativity in this environment. Your Friday-Night Essence will come to life; your Ten-Second Miracles will come to life. This environment will lead to a hurricane of creativity and wealth.

On the societal level, the Neothink® Society will grow one per state, then two, then three, then several per state, which will start the pressures of the business alliance described in the Miss Annabelle's Story. The organized Neothink® Society will eventually cause a brain drain where sharp, intelligent people will begin leaving the antivilization and come into The Neothink® Society. They'll leave behind the antivilization and come into our Clubhouses to get the Neothink® life advantages.

You all will become mentors and teachers. This is a big responsibility. You must never walk on others shoulders. Instead, you must reach down and pull others up with you. That's the nature of Neothink®. As we go public, we will not use the expression, Church of God-Man. We all know what that means having read the Heirlooms. When bringing in the public we'll instead use the expression, The Neothink® Society and our Neothink® Clubhouses.

And remember, we pull people in but give nothing out. That's the business alliance dynamic; if you want these incredible secrets and advantages you must come on in. We're not selling. We are inviting the public into our wealth of knowledge. Instead of burning out as we grow, that is, if we sell, instead we will pick up steam if we bring people in. Get in or get beat! That's marketing, starting at the ground floor. This could be huge. You see, people have to come in. They have to join because of the business alliance dynamics. They need to join; they need to come in for the advantages that are in our Neothink® Society, in our Clubhouses.

However, before anyone gets into a Clubhouse, he or she must be a subscribed member. Most will subscribe through the Introduction Meetings. It is in the Introduction Meetings where you'll convince family, friends, acquaintances and strangers of something fantastic in life.

Secret Teachings to My Exclusive Inner Circle

You'll bring in people through mediums you are most comfortable with. One fellow wants to knock on doors. That's where he is comfortable but maybe not for you. Others will want to post bulletins around town perhaps at universities or on the streets, on street light poles. Others will run radio ads and many times you can get free local PR. The same goes for television; sometimes you can get free television spots. At a certain point, people who are very successful at this will find that they want to buy advertisement because they're so successful at bringing people in and making a profit from having them become subscribed members. Some of you will learn how to use the newspapers to run newspaper ads or PR. Others will hand out flyers for the Introduction Meetings. Others will just simply approach people they meet.

You are merely making introductions. You're letting people know about The Neothink® Society of secret knowledge and, after generations, the Society will give them a peek into the Society's secrets to wealth and love. You're inviting them to the public unveiling.

Now, if you run PR or advertising, be sure there's a way for you to receive the credit for those coming to the Introduction Meetings because of your ad. Never use literature from my company, copyrighted literature or advertisements. Always use your own words. This will also get you into the integrating mode. With time, with what I've been teaching you, you will become very effective marketers.

I suggest your Clubhouses meet once a month. That's critical for your network marketing as a value motivator and it's crucial for you for emotional, intellectual, social and financial fulfillment. Your Clubhouse can meet over lunch or dinner or at any location. Have both a basic agenda and free time to talk, with additional time to socialize. Develop a format to incorporate a chance for members to talk, share, discuss the Heirlooms, help one another, socialize and time to embrace the business alliance. The Clubhouses will form now because of the public marketing movement.

Now, after all these years, Neothink® is formally going into the public and I'm going to enjoy the rewards, my apprentices, along with you. I'm here for you each month and even though I don't answer questions sent into me for sheer logistical time limitations except for some very rare exceptions, I still do and always will keep close track of you and your questions. You may have noticed that each meeting has been designed to answer your most pressing needs and desires. Look where it's taking you in just four meetings and I've come to know many of you through your actions and through The Neothink® Society's web site. So, keep posting and expressing yourselves on the secret web site. That's how I get to know you personally. I know many of you very personally by following your posts. I've developed genuine affection for so many of you. I celebrate your successes and I feel bad during your losses. I'm in a unique position to see your development from a wider perspective than you.

A father will do everything in his power to make things wonderful for his children. But his children will sometimes get sick and sometimes they'll make wrong decisions. The loving father will continue to do everything for his children through his guidance and knowledge. I pledge to do the same for you. Even if we don't see each other, I feel internal joy from your growth and I must tell you I feel a deep sadness when I lose one of you to the anticivilization. I want you to know that I hope to bring each and every one of you into the Civilization of the Universe. That is my goal. Is it unrealistic? My answer: Never ask a loving father if it's unrealistic to expect to bring up all his children into a wonderful life. For, I know that in all of you that innocent child of the past is reaching out, reaching out for this C of U life that is the goal of our journey.

Now I'm doing everything in my power to help. Therefore, your Level Five Meeting is going to consist of me answering your questions. I believe the timing for an essence meeting of this kind is right. You'll be leaping ahead this month more than ever before as you engage Level Four. You are going to run into challenges and that's what the Level Five Meeting will be all about, me helping you with your obstacles and challenges. So, I want your big questions. Remember how, in your first essence meeting, I was only able to answer ten or so of your questions. I want you to feel free to communicate with each other and perhaps collectively form your question or questions of highest importance. Be careful not to use this offer to block your own 100% responsibility. Go back and re-read that section on 100% responsibility in the Self-Leader System, The Vision Climax in your Heirlooms. Carefully choose your questions over the next month and post them on Meetings web site, Meeting Level Four. I will answer those questions in our Level Five Meeting.

In the meantime, you need to begin forming and organizing your Clubhouses to prepare for your three public movements.

1. Your Introduction Meetings to bring in and sign up members.
2. Your clubhouses to establish a formal structure through which a new civilization, the C of U, can take hold and grow on earth.
3. Your grassroots political movement to get candidates on the ballot in your states and to get stimulating campaigns going to the general public.

So get organized and get prepared. It's time to turn random breezes into a hurricane. And remember, during these organizational A-Team meetings you can determine the questions of high importance for me for our next essence meeting.

With that, I'll end today's historic meeting. I'm thinking big when I see our journey ahead...apprentices and mentor building a superpuzzle together. Let's see what you can do. I'm counting on you, my apprentices, to get organized in order to start implementing these three public movements. I also really appreciate you and your crucial role in changing the direction of mankind. You'll become an eternal part of future history books. And, remember as you take on these new challenges, you'll soon discover what I really mean by playing as an adult. For, you'll soon uncover that inherent Friday-Night Essence all of us in the original Secret Society share...the quest for the C of U on earth.

Level-Four Essence Meeting

Follow Up One

Introduction Meetings Supplemental Instructions

Hello apprentices. I want to stress a few very crucial points made in your Level Four Meeting that will help you set up your all-important Introduction Meetings.

I have seen some early questions posted on the Level Four Meetings web site and I will start with the notion of getting a script from me for your Introduction Meetings. You do NOT want a script from me for your Introduction Meetings. Here is why: You are not making a blind sale. You do NOT want to use the same selling techniques per se that you saw in your original Orientation Booklet from me. That was a blind sale and techniques were used accordingly. In your case, you are bringing people together with the apprentices, in the flesh so to speak, congregating in your Introduction Meetings. There they meet you and others, perhaps they already know you to some extent, they see and feel the love and respect and competence and happiness among you apprentices, they feel the child of the past all around them in the room. Remember in the Miss Annabelle Story when Jake and Jasmine attended a Church of God-Man? Remember how they felt?

Your presentation must come from YOU, from your personal experiences. You will get in trouble using a script from me. With a script from me, you will come across disingenuous. If you are not making big money now, then do NOT go there. Instead, go in the direction that YOU feel...say, the home you found in the Society, the love, the special people and lifelong friends. You were searching before for something...for something more, and now you have found it.

When you do make big money, then you can state it loud and clear in your Introduction Meetings. Then, you will be in the honest position to mentor your apprentices and help them do the same. You will come across with confidence and sincerity when you talk about making big money, and you will be able to answer questions with ease. You want to be YOU, and that will be your most powerful sale.

In the Level Four Meeting, when I pressed and pressed for you to use stimulation and NOT education, I was talking about the political movement. Your Introduction Meetings require stimulation, true, but there are different forms of stimulation. For example, while on the Disney Cruise with my kids, I listened to a speaker selling a lifetime cruise vacation club. I was a casual observer until he started talking about his daughter and how fast time passes and how his closest times with her were here on the ship. He told moving stories of their times together, including how she would sometimes subconsciously revert back and call him “Daddy” when they were on the cruise together. I admit, I got tears in my eyes and ended up in his office signing the contract. Yes, he touched my child of the past. He never mentioned money.

In this setting, your sales must come from your heart. I am not saying that you need to always use the child of the past approach...use money when you make a bundle through this network marketing opportunity. What I am saying is: speak from your heart. Speak with sincerity. During your presentation, you will be presenting Forces of Nature and Forces of Neothink®. It will be moving and believable. That real approach will get their attention. Remember Ulysses. Remember the exhilarating journey through life...that is what everyone wants, and that is what you have found in the Society.

Express your own passion. The Forces of Nature and the Forces of Neothink® will come through you expressing and emphasizing your own journey. The fact that you are on a journey and that your life has meaning and purpose will draw people in. They want that too; they want what you have. And the price is now affordable. The values are very tangible.

Secret Teachings to My Exclusive Inner Circle

Let me reiterate: The direct mail piece you ordered your Neothink® Heirlooms from is a blind sale. It is cold coming through the mail versus the warm, breathing, physical contact of the Introduction Meetings. You must sell your own personal passion. THAT will make you big money...YOUR personal feelings for and commitment to the material and the people in The Neothink® Society.

As you apprentices begin to make good money, even big money, from this program...cheer out that fact in Part Two of your Introduction Meetings. View the Level Four Meeting again to understand Part One and Part Two of your Introduction Meetings. Yes, you will be using all the Forces of Nature and Forces of Neothink® in your exhilarating yet honest, heartfelt Introduction Meetings.

You have a few weeks of hard work in front of you before you can start. You need your A-Team in place. You need your Introduction Meeting in place. You need your first two or three Workshop Meetings in place. You need your Clubhouse Meetings up and going.

As the launch date approaches, I will provide you with rules of compliance, especially regarding advertising. In essence, there can be no claims made that are not possible and are not true. In a congregation such as the Introduction Meetings, as I wrote earlier, such a hyped approach will cause potential members to walk away, turned off. Instead, touch their hearts with YOUR life journey. I have read some heart-rending stories on the web site that would make powerful presentations in person. Do not look too closely at the NT approach that brought you in, for that was a different medium. You would be missing the most powerful aspects of your medium: the warm, human touch.

And do not forget, there is a Part Two to the Introduction Meetings that encourages the Neothink® Network Marketing Opportunity and its potential. The apprentice in your A-Team who is making the most money doing the Network Marketing would perhaps (but not always) deliver the most qualified and most powerful presentation, revealing his or her own success selling memberships. Here, in Part Two, you can inform potential members of the money they could make.

I do not want apprentices complaining about the time it takes to get this going. This move has been anticipated for decades. If it takes a few weeks to get it right, then so be it. You have as much work as I do to get this going. You need to get everything I listed above in order, and then report your ready-to-go status to me by posting on Level Four Meeting at the Level Meetings web site. I want a list of names in your A-Team and their roles in the Introduction Meetings, the Workshop Meetings, and the Clubhouse Meetings. Make that status report as brief and succinct as possible.

In closing, some of you have expressed a fear of marketing. In this benevolent environment, just be yourself, relay your experience, and explain the values YOU have received from the Society. You do not have to be a strong marketer per se, although you will become stronger and stronger with experience. For now, though, you just need to be yourself, for that is what potential members will respond to. Moreover, your sell becomes not only affordable, but appealing when the potential member sees all that he gets for that money, namely the highly-guarded secrets, the one-on-one workshops, a local mentor in you, entrance to the clubhouse, admittance to the national web site with discussion boards and chat rooms and more, the journey with national mentor Mark Hamilton, the social contacts including lifelong friends, and the wonderful network marketing opportunity. In this benevolent environment, just be yourself, relay your experience, and explain the values YOU have received from the Society. You do not have to be a strong marketer per se, although you will become stronger and stronger with experience. For now, though, you just need to be yourself, for that is what potential members will respond to.

My apprentices, we are on a great journey together. Tomorrow will bring us wealth, health, and happiness.

Level-Four Essence Meeting

Follow Up Two

Political Opportunity Supplemental Instructions

To be successful against political behemoths, we have to deliver the punch no one saw coming. Over the past twenty-five years, I have developed that phantom punch.

The Level-Four Meeting did not allow me the time to dig down into the complex psychology for you. Over the next few meetings, that psychology will increasingly surface.

The '92 Perot campaign came out of nowhere and almost decked both behemoths. But after Perot staggered the Republicans and Democrats, he could not follow through and put them away. He went the distance but lost a unanimous decision.

To begin to give you a taste of the psychology behind our political potential, let us first go back to a parallel event over two hundred years ago: Whereas the Revolutionary War began in April of 1775, the colonies still sought favorable peace terms. In January of 1776, Thomas Paine published his pamphlet Common Sense. Soon, all states called for independence. Six months later, the Declaration of Independence was ratified by the Second Continental Congress.

The sweeping psychological shift from seeking favorable peace terms to seeking independence rose from that very stimulating little 50-page booklet. No one really saw that coming. Thomas Paine and his Common Sense knocked out the behemoth, the Kingdom of Great Britain.

Paine's little book sold an equivalent of fifty million copies today. If you noticed, throughout The Twelve Visions, I state several times that once fifty million people see the Twelve Visions, then an unstoppable change begins toward the Neo-

Tech World. The stimulating style of Common Sense differed from the philosophical, educational style of Paine's Enlightenment contemporaries. The stimulating style of The Twelve Visions differs from the philosophical, educational style of the other nonfiction Neothink® works.

Are you beginning to see something here?

Over a decade and a half ago, I began to understand the differences between stimulation and education. Until that point, all my writings were educational.

With that growing understanding, I began a long journey to develop a phantom punch. Perot's original '92 campaign manager picked up on my stimulation-based approach when she read my political manifesto. She talked to me and got my permission to use elements of that stimulation from my political manifesto.

For the next fifteen years, I dug deeper and deeper into a stimulation-based delivery of Neothink®, found in only one of my several nonfiction books — in The Twelve Visions. Although most people cannot know it, I have created via that publication the perfect "body" for delivering the phantom punch.

Now, back to the Twelve Visions Party and the National Platform: it will look like nothing ever seen before. It will consist of an introduction that explains why political platforms all sound so good, but how the people do not see the society caused by those platforms until it is too late.

Then, in that introduction, I will introduce Neothink® and explain how Neothink® Visions legitimately show you the future, namely the society that will come about from our platform. Neothink® is a legitimate way to see into the future by seeing the missing pieces to a growing puzzle-picture. The National Platform will essentially consist of Neothink® Visions Ten, Eleven, and a small portion of Twelve. It will look like no other platform ever before, but that is the power in it. Combined with our stimulation-based campaign, this has the ingredients to knock over the unsuspecting behemoths.

Let me back up for a moment. Because of the wide-reaching marketing of Neothink® (in 193 countries, 14 languages), I have received mega-money offers to bring my books into the trade (i.e., into the bookstores). I have turned down every such multi-million-dollar offer because Neothink® has always been a secret society. I would not breach that secrecy no matter what the offer was. I would remain anonymous to the public. I would not relinquish my secrets and turnkey techniques outside our secret society. Money was not and has never been my authority. As you know, I am building a superpuzzle — the superpuzzle you read in the Miss Annabelle Story.

Although I have never let a Neothink® publication into the trade, I will eventually let a shorter version of The Twelve Visions go into the bookstores. The interplay between the political party and the stimulating book itself will add momentum and credibility to the political movement. I will also put portions of The Twelve Visions on the political party's national web site being developed now. Will we get fifty million eyes on the Twelve Visions? A successful campaign could conceivably cause that many eyes to see the Twelve Visions, if not the book itself, then portions of the book on the web site.

Now, changing subjects: In the Fifth Essence Meeting, I will spend some time talking about the different essences of Frank R. Wallace and Mark Hamilton. Although dealing with the same subject matter, Dr. Wallace was developing the fundamental belief system. I was developing the fundamental application system. We both needed each other. We had the perfect division of labor/division of essence. A comparison can be made to Christianity. Jesus was developing the belief system. Paul was developing the application system.

Dr. Wallace's essence: he had to integrate the fundamental ideas, no matter what they were about. He could not be concerned about people's reactions. He had to remain concerned about the fundamental reality of the idea itself.

My essence: I had to integrate the fundamental applications, no matter who the end users were. I had to be concerned about people's reactions. I had to remain concerned about the fundamental reality of effective application itself.

The dichotomy between Dr. Wallace's essence and my essence shows in the writings themselves. The Miss Annabelle Story, for instance, is a map to the C of U. Pax Neo-Tech is, too. However, many more people can read and actualize the life advantages found in the Miss Annabelle Story or in the Twelve Visions or The Self-Leader System because they all come from a fundamental Neothink® application system. Dr. Wallace's Pax Neo-Tech, on the other hand, is more challenging to read and apply directly into your life. You are more apt to intellectualize it than to apply it.

Because of the different essences, Dr. Wallace dug deeply into all areas of life in developing the Neo-Tech belief system of fully integrated honesty. His comprehensive belief system, for instance, deals with religion and God.

When running a political campaign, the Neo-Tech idea system for religion and God should not even enter the picture. For, the proper application of Neo-Tech in politics is Freedom of Religion. It is not up to a political party to dictate beliefs.

Therefore, the political movement must focus on Mark Hamilton's Twelve Visions, which deals with only the germane concepts and stimulants for political application. With today's Internet search engines, the political party must remain one step removed from Frank R. Wallace and his writings. As a matter of fact, he understood this and told me on several occasions that the political movement will be my essence and not his.

All will know that Dr. Wallace's original idea system planted the roots beneath this growing movement. Perhaps an analogy would be Ayn Rand's Objectivist philosophy planted the roots beneath the Libertarian Party. But, being one step removed, many religious conservatives still gravitate toward certain Libertarian ideas even though Ayn Rand was an atheist.

In the National Platform, I will refer to Neo-Tech, but in the context of super rapidly advancing new (Neo) Technology (Tech). Of course, you and I know that super rapidly advancing new technology is the result of fully integrated honesty in politics. But, we will let that deeper integration stay in Dr. Wallace's Neo-Tech writings.

Back to the topic of this supplement: The Twelve Visions Party. I see that apprentices in most of the states have acquired the requirements I had asked you to get. Still, I want the A-Teams in each state to call their Secretary of State and request a Minor Political Party Guide. That contains everything you need, from requirements on how to start the Twelve Visions Party in your state to requirements on getting candidates on the ballot.

Through some deep power-thinking, I can see that the A-Teams will more likely form and focus on the Neothink® Network Marketing Opportunity and The Neothink® Society. Therefore, I have decided that all A-Teams around the country must also incorporate the Political Movement, too. Whereas this might initially seem like baggage to some, it really ties into the common-denominator format. Remember what that is? Remember back to the Level Three Essence Meeting. YOUR common-denominator format is: your congregations, your meetings. Apprentices congregating – A-Teams. That common-denominator format will make this public movement powerful, just as the common-denominator format of the assembly-line made the early automobile movement powerful.

Now, this will not be difficult. Let me explain: The A-Teams will be designating certain people to do certain things...those things they are best at (keep in mind Friday-Night Essences). Some of those sitting in the A-Team will be best working the political movement (perhaps their FNE). But being a group, there are more of you to develop ideas and support for the political movement.

Of course, the problem here is: those working on the political movement do not make money whereas those working on the Neothink® Network Marketing Movement make good money. Well, I will solve that problem. Remember the highly qualified names I have to feed your down line? Those apprentices pursuing the political movement will get very healthy down-line feeds. Those down-line feeds will be worth a lot of money.

So, I want the Political Movement to integrate in now with the Neothink® Network Marketing/Clubhouse Movement. The greater pool of minds and bodies will launch the Twelve Visions Party. In the organizing stage of the A-Teams, the apprentices will decide who does what. I do not want a single A-Team without a political movement. It goes with the territory now. Going public is an essence (physical/mind) movement. That essence movement includes structuring the A-Teams, preparing the Introduction Meetings, preparing the Workshop Meetings, starting the Clubhouse Meetings, starting the Political Movement. You, my apprentices, have a lot to do. You are part of mankind's final psychological shift into the Neothink® World. You, my apprentices, stand to make a lot of money pursuing your FNE of spreading Neothink®.

It is a big plan. But it will move forward. I am looking for your big questions on the political movement. Get them to me soon, my apprentices, for I have to start preparing for your Fifth Essence Meeting.

One big step forward in our Level Four Meeting was combining the two public movements into one. The political movement will not get left behind. There will now be financial incentive in the lucrative down-line feed. And there will now be a full support system in the A-Teams.

Thank you for your growth, which I watch with pride.
